BURGLARS BIND ENTIRE FAMILY

M. Zaiman Forced to Open Safe From Which $5000 in Jewels Is Stolen

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—Binding and gagging M. Zaiman, a jeweler of 1515 Geary street, his wife, his 3-year-old child and even a babe of 18 months, three masked bandits armed with loaded revolvers escaped with nearly $5000 worth of jewelry at an early hour this morning in the heart of a thickly populated district. The robbers worked with precision, had evidently carefully planned every detail of the crime and familiarized themselves with the premises to such an extent that they were prepared for any emergency.

Zaiman and his wife were asleep, the little ones occupying an adjoining cot, when they were startled by the sudden switching on of the light in their apartment. Three men, their faces concealed by masks made in the regulation style, stood before them with revolvers upraised. They had entered through the window in the kitchen. As soon as Zaiman had been compelled to get up and throw his hands in the air, one of the three thrust into the store adjoining and, going to the door, acted as lookout. Warning Mrs. Zaiman to make no outcry on pain of instant death, the other two conducted the jeweler to his safe, ordering him to open it.

He hesitated when he thought of losing the $5000 worth of jewelry it contained, some of which belonged to customers, but one of the culprits emphasized the command by placing the muzzle of his weapon against the neck of the frightened storekeeper, and in a few moments he was nervously working at the safe. The culprits emphasized the command by placing the muzzle of his weapon against the neck of the frightened storekeeper, and in a few moments he was nervously working at the safe.

When the safe was opened the bandits took Zaiman back to his room, where they proceeded to tear up the bedclothes, and with the aid of strips of blanket and some rope which they carried, they securely bound the man and his wife, charging them not to make a movement before 7 o'clock, as they would be some time in ransacking the safe.

FAMILY SWEEP DOWN GORGE BY CLOUDBURST

Mother Saves Her Baby From Death in the Flood

SAN BERNARDINO, March 12.—A flood rising almost instantly after a cloudburst in the Bear Creek Valley, north of the San Bernardino range, swept the family and belongings of Kenneth Broome down a gorge today. All their livestock was drowned, but Broome, his wife and infant child escaped. The family was found by James Eldridge, a mining engineer, who was nearby when the furious mountain storm broke.

The portfolios are distributed as follows: Premier, Canalejas; Foreign Affairs, Garcia Prieto; Minister of Justice, Arias Mariandea; Minister of Finance, Navarro Revier; Minister of Interior, Senor Barroso; Minister of War, General de Luque; Minister of Marine, Senor Vidal; Minister of Public Works, Senor Villanueva; Minister of Public Instruction, Duke of Alba.

Barber Talks Too Much To Wife; She Gets Divorce

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—Intolerable loquacity was the ground upon which Mrs. Colla Moore obtained a divorce today from Theodorus Moore. "He was a good husband, Judge, but he talked too much," complained the wife as she related to Judge Morgan how Moore had kept her awake at night, talking about baseball, woman suffrage, national politics, the war in China and other current topics. Moore is a barber. He offered no defense.

COOK'S METHODS ARE CONDEMNED

BERKELEY, March 12.—County Clerk John P. Cook's use of his registration meetings to secure signatures for his referendum petition was condemned by Supervisor Fred W. Foss at the monthly meeting of the City Club last evening. "Cook is getting up this referendum," declared Foss, "to prevent the work of registration being taken from his office and given to a registrar under the recent law. The clerk, while registering voters, has exceptional advantages to secure signatures for such a petition, and he is making full use thereof. Cook's employment of this advantage to feather his own patronage must be unqualifiedly condemned."

RECALL OF OFFICIALS URGED

Labor Council to Circulate Petitions to Oust Mott and Turner

Entire School Board, Except Miss Brown, Is Under Fire

Recall of the entire school board with the exception of Miss Annie Florence Brown, in addition to the recall of Mayor Mott and one or more members of the Oakland city council, is being planned by the Socialist party of Oakland and the labor elements affiliated with them.

Besides Mayor Mott the labor council has already begun plans to recall Commissioner F. C. Turner. It is understood that Commissioner of Revenue and Finance John Forrest will also have to face the fire of a recall election, but the Socialists and the labor organizations themselves are divided over the question of whether or not other officers of the present administration should be included in the recall.

A statement, setting forth that Mayor Mott and Commissioner F. C. Turner of the department of health and safety were responsible for the police action of March 3, when Hamilton hall was entered and a Socialist meeting broken up, was made last night at the Central Council by the committee appointed to investigate the affair. The committee recommended that the council do all in its power to assist in the recall of the two officials. The report was adopted.

The committee composed of A. W. Sefton, secretary of the council; William A. Spooner, former president of the organization; C. D. Lavin and W. F. Johnson listened to statements from Commissioners John Forrest, William J. Baccus, Harry B. Anderson, Chief of Police Wilson, H. C. Tugue and several Socialists who attended the meeting in question, and a number of representatives of the Industrial Workers of the World whose street meetings were broken up.

General Castro Tells What Would Follow Intervention by United States

CAMAGUEY, Cuba, March 12.—General Fernando de Castro, during the assembly of the Veterans, which lasted throughout the night, declared that should the United States attempt another intervention the Veterans of Cuba would fight as they had fought against Spain. He was applauded enthusiastically.

The general assembly, which was convened yesterday, resolved to demand an investigation into the sources of wealth of all the members of the administration, including the president.

Eight Defendants Out of Fifty-Four Arrested Do Not Appear at Trial

INDIANAPOLIS, March 12.—Forty-six labor union leaders, charged with unlawful interstate transportation of dynamite and nitro-glycerine alleged to have been used in a five-year campaign of terrorism against the "open shop" in the structural iron industry throughout the country, appeared in the federal court today. Demurrers to the indictments in the government's prosecution were filed before Judge A. B. Anderson by counsel for the indicted men when they were arraigned. Eight of the fifty-four defendants were not present.

Secretary Knox Is Royally Entertained

SAN SALVADOR, Republic of Salvador, March 12.—The round of official functions in honor of Secretary Knox's visit was continued enthusiastically today. The feature of the program was a dress parade of the army on the Campo de Marte. For Secretary Knox the ladies of the city had arranged an excursion to the picturesque city of Santa Tecla, or Nueva San Salvador, the capital of the department of La Libertad. The American visitors will be the guests of honor tonight at a presidential ball in the Casino. This will be the final function of Secretary Knox's stay here. He will leave tomorrow.

To Protect Importer Through Higher Duties

WASHINGTON, March 12.—A decision of sweeping importance in the administration of the tariff law declaring that an importer can appeal from an assessment of duty by a collector of customs on the ground that the assessment was too low, was rendered by the United States court of customs appeals today. The decision, according to custom experts, means that manufacturers disagreeing with the treasury department's interpretation of the tariff act can import a test shipment and appeal to the customs court to get more protection through higher duties.

Falls of Clyde Also Flies Signals of Distress as Waves Drive the Big Craft Shoreward, but the Vessel Is Finally Saved

Two Are Drowned From Tanker When Life Boat Is Launched in an Effort to Reach Shore in Spite of High Seas; Wind and Rain Sweep Port

TWO OIL CARRIERS ARE IN GREAT DANGER

GAVIOTA, Cal., March 12.—The tank steamer Rosecrans of the Associated Oil Company went on the rocks near the oil refinery here during the night and two men were drowned in an attempt to reach shore in a small boat. The vessel is practically a total wreck.

The Falls of Clyde, also an Associated Oil Company vessel, is flying signals of distress, but the waves are so high it is impossible for life boats to reach her and for several hours it was feared she also would go on the rocks. At noon her anchors were holding and if the storm does not increase the vessel will be saved.

HEAVY STORM HITS GAVIOTA.

At 3 o'clock this morning the heaviest storm in years broke here. The rain fell in torrents, the wind blew a gale and the waves were of enormous height.

The wind was of such strength that the Rosecrans, dragging her anchors, was blown upon the rocks.

An attempt to land a small boat through the surf was made, but it capsized and one sailor, whose name was not learned, and the ship's carpenter were drowned. Later the rest of the steamer's crew reached shore safely.

FLIES SIGNAL OF DISTRESS.

The Falls of Clyde, while the Rosecrans was being battered on the rocky coast, slowly drifted with the wind and waves toward a like fate. She flew signals of distress, but because of the great waves, it was impossible to send life boats to the rescue.

The Rosecrans left San Francisco, March 10, for Honolulu with a crew of thirty-five men, commanded by Captain Johnson. The Falls of Clyde, Captain Egalls, and a crew of eighteen men, a three-master, arrived from Honolulu two days ago.

The tug Sea Rover left San Francisco this morning for this port.

Canadians May Pass Uniform Marriage Law

OTTAWA, Ont., March 12.—Arguments as to the right of the Canadian parliament to pass a federal marriage law will be heard by the Supreme Court on May 7. Heretofore the provinces alone have legislated on marriage. Various Protestant bodies, however, have recently urged a dominion law to overcome the marriage customs in Quebec.

Lawyer Challenges Roosevelt as Juror

MINEOLA, L. I., March 12.—Theodore Roosevelt was drawn as juror, No. 7, today in the damage suit of Michael Canady against the New York Central railroad, but quickly was eliminated by John J. Graham, counsel for the plaintiff, who challenged the Colonel promptly. Why he exercised this right the lawyer did not explain.

Colonel Roosevelt was plainly disconcerted when he stepped down from the box.

"I am ready to do my duty," he said, "but I don't see why I should have to come here day after day if nobody wants me as a juror. I don't see what the boy (Canady) was afraid of for I certainly would have given him a square deal." Graham had approached the Colonel so quietly that for a moment or two there were few that were aware he had been challenged.

"You're a brave man, Colonel," the lawyer said, "and we will excuse you."

"I think he would be conferring a greater boon on humanity by serving it in other ways than by sitting in this case for three or four days."

Gall Stones Removed Without an Operation

After suffering for one year with gall stones I was told by a friend to try Swamp-Root. I began with the fifty-cent size and after using four bottles found that I was much better. Then began using the larger size bottles and after taking three bottles I was cured. That has been seven years ago this summer and I have never been sick since that time from this disease.

I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root to any one for kidney and bladder troubles, hoping it may do as much good for many people as it did for me.

Yours truly,

MISS EMMA HOLDEFER,

The Bush-street station and obtained a safe key from the three men. Later in the morning an expert safe locksmith began work in an effort to open the doors in order that an inventory of the lost articles might be obtained.

The scene of the robbery is in the midst of a crowded residence and business section, but two blocks from Filmore street. At least three police officers passed by the store within an hour of the time the theft was committed, and it is believed that the culprits carefully timed their operations by keeping a watch on the movements of the police.

Ceremony at Floating Of Old Maine's Hulk

HAVANA, March 12.—Colonel William H. Black and Lieutenant Colonel Mason M. Patrick, members of the board of engineers which has had charge of raising the Maine, arrived here last night and consulted Major Ferguson, who has supervised the actual work with reference to floating out the old battleship.

The board decided to consult Cuban authorities today to arrange details of the ceremony, which has been fixed for Saturday. It is now probable the ship will leave the harbor about 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

DANCING IN SCHOOLS IS CONDEMNED BY CLERGY

Methodist Ministers Start a Campaign
Against Classes for Pupils

At the semi-weekly meeting of the Oakland Methodist Preachers' Association, Rev. F. A. Scarvie, pastor of the Norwegian-Danish Methodist Church of this city, protested against the classes which he said are being formed in the public schools to teach dancing to the children, declaring that such classes "are laying the foundation for very bad work" among the young people of the churches represented by the ministers present.

Rev. Scarvie said that his own children were being imported by their classmates at the Lafayette School to join a dancing class which had been started at the school after school hours.

Rev. W. W. Case of the Shattuck Avenue Church, endorsed the protest, saying that the establishment of dancing classes in the public schools was "a very serious thing and a very improper thing," and that he was very strongly opposed to it.

COMMITTEE TO INQUIRE.

A committee was appointed to consider the question and report at the next meeting, which will be held in two weeks. The committee consists of the Rev. George W. White of the First Church, the Rev. F. A. Scarvie and the Rev. H. J. Winsor of the Eighth Avenue Church.

Because Rev. A. D. Wagner of the Centennial Church asked the question:

"Where are the messenger boys and the newsboys spending their nights?" and no one knew certainly just how they were passing their time after nightfall, another committee was appointed to inquire into the matter and make its report.

"They are spending their nights better than the members of our high schools that are spending their evenings dancing."

Dr. White opposed having any of the members of the Teachers' Association taking part in slumming expeditions, arguing such expeditions for preachers are bad and ministers had greatly lessened their influence in other cities by making such original investigations. Rev. A. D. Wagner was made chairman of the committee on the night life of the messenger boys, it being stated that no slumming was involved.

ENDORSE MOVEMENT.

On motion of the Rev. J. H. N. Williams of the College Avenue Church, the preachers' meeting passed a resolution expressing appreciation of the men and religion 8-day campaign in the east bay cities and commending the team of experts to the churches in other cities which they are to visit.

The next meeting of the association will be held on the 25th of the month at the Grace Methodist Church, where supper will be served by the ladies of the church to the pastors and their wives together with invited guests. On the evening's program will be a paper by the wife of the Rev. Martin of Alameda on "Woman's Ballot and the Kingdom of God."

Before the transaction of their business the members listened to an address by Dr. S. E. Chapman, a member of the Centennial Church, Oakland, on "The Life Beautiful." At the close of the address was given the speaker for his address, which one of the "pastors" stated "was the best he had listened to in forty years. The life beautiful," said Dr. Chapman, "can only be lived by those who prefer others to themselves and is inseparable from goodness and unselfishness. Our bodies are the temples of the Holy Ghost, and will appear in the judgment to receive judgment according to the works done in the body."

The liquor and tobacco habits were strongly denounced as the cause of physical, mental and moral disaster of incalculable magnitude.

"Alcohol," said Dr. Chapman, "is no food, but a deadly poison, which solidifies the brain and destroys its functions and weakens all the vital processes."

"One of the saddest sights is to see a company of high school boys smoking cigarettes and pipes in imitation of their foolish elders."

Dr. Chapman predicted that if the present rate of increase in the use of tobacco continues the American people will become a nation of degenerates. Tobacco was charged with causing a terrible strain upon the heart, while the use of a single glass of beer a day was said to reduce efficiency 8 per cent. Indulgence in three glasses to lessen efficiency between 25 and 40 per cent. Over-eating was charged with many of the ills of life, and the preachers were told that most of them ate too much and ate food that was not fit to eat.

The address was illustrated by the war experiences of the speaker, who thought the young men of the present were not physically the equal of the men who enlisted at the call of President Lincoln.

"Lincoln's face," said Dr. Chapman, "was the saddest and the sweetest face in all this world. If one wishes to be beautiful he must live the beautiful life."

The morning services in the Berkeley churches are well attended, but that the evening services are not, was the substance of a brief report made by the Rev. C. B. Dalton, pastor of the Third Baptist Church, in the college town. Dr. Dalton said that after closing his own service Sunday evening he visited two of the other churches near his own and found that all the pastors alike were speaking to very small congregations.

plied that this was the contention, and that when the statute defined that it was illegal to ship explosives only if effort were made to conceal or mislabel the character of the shipment, it made the same stipulation as to an individual carrying explosives on a train. Ball further argued that the act of the government in transporting explosives violated the act of 1866, and that as the indictments cite both acts, the indictments are defective. He maintained as the conspiracy charged was alleged to be a general conspiracy since 1908, the statute of limitations had run against prosecution.

One hundred explosions destroyed or damaged property of employers or non-union labor in cities from Massachusetts to California between 1905 and 1911. The most disastrous wreck was the Los Angeles Times building, October 1, 1910, killing twenty-one men.

Most of the defendants are present or former officials of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers. All are alleged to have conspired illegally to convey explosives on passenger trains from coast to coast.

The rest of the conspiracy, it is charged, was in the headquarters of the Iron Workers' Association in Indianapolis.

ABSENT DEFENDANTS.

Fifty-four men were indicted. The absent defendants were John J. McManama, secretary-treasurer of the Iron Workers' Association since 1909, alleged to have directed the operations of the dynamiting crew from his office here, now serving a fourteen-year sentence in San Quentin penitentiary, California, for having conspired to blow up the Lincoln Tunnel, Works, Los Angeles; James B. McNamara, serving a life sentence in San Quentin for blowing up the Los Angeles Times building, October 1, 1910; Charles E. McGowan, "practical dynamiter," confessedly the most active agent of the conspirators, and upon whose information the investigations of the plots largely have rested, now in jail at Los Angeles; Eugene A. Blaney, secretary of the former member of the executive board of the iron workers, under indictment and bond in California; Olaf A. Tveitmo, secretary of the Building Trades Council of California, under indictment and bond in that state; John J. McCray, former member of the executive board of the Iron Workers' Association, whereabouts unknown; John R. Carroll and Edward J. Phillips of the Iron Workers' Association, Los Angeles, resisting removal to Indianapolis.

Most prominent among the indicted men here today were Frank M. Ryan of Chicago, president of the Iron Workers' Association; John Butler of Buffalo, first vice-president; and Herbert S. Hockin of Detroit, second vice-president and acting secretary-treasurer.

Financiers Figure
In Near-Wreck

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—The "Millionaire's Train," the 3:14 a. m. from Hillsboro and San Mateo, carrying some of the most prominent figures in the financial world of this city, lost a wheel this morning just as the train was entering the third tunnel, in South San Francisco. The brakes failed to work, and the train jumped through the tunnel with a disconcerting racket, throwing the passengers into a panic.

There was more than one chance that the engine might have turned over as a result of the peculiar accident. It held itself up, however, and dragged the cars out into the light without further mishap.

'Women's Trades
Unions' Discussed

Following a luncheon today at Ebell club, the topic of "Women's Trade Unions" was placed before the members of the club, Mrs. A. K. Munson was the hostess of the afternoon, and Mrs. R. Parrell arranged the musical program.

The speaker was Miss Lillian Matthews, who has made an extensive study of the subject. She outlined the various branches of labor in which women have organized. The conditions under which they work and the hours formed part of the discussion.

Ebell club is planning another large card party in April.

health and safety and the mayor to abridge this right.

2. That the affair was never brought officially before the council and does not appear on the minutes of that body.

3. That the charter of the other commissioners have been officially notified of the affair, and even subsequently to the affair at Hamilton hall it has not been officially before the commissioners.

4. That it discloses a fault in the city charter, as it gives individuals too much power. That it is a fault in the city charter to be helpless in the matter.

5. That the responsibility lies directly with the mayor and the commissioner of health and safety, the mayor because, according to the charter, he has "charge and general oversight of the several departments and power to command the police."

OFFICIALS BLAMED.

"In view of the foregoing above," states the recommendation, and of the duties of the American Federation of Labor which provides that the unions adopt measures and adjust principles among mechanics and laborers to permanently unite them to secure recognition of their rights, this committee is of the opinion that the officials responsible for the riot of Sunday, March 8, 1912.

"That this recommendation be referred to political bodies for action.

That the labor council and its affiliated unions give all assistance to political bodies as will comply with the recommendation herein contained, to the end that a check be placed on police license and that the laws of the land may be administered as becomes a law abiding people."

ACCUSES MOTT.

In connection with the report a statement was filed by A. W. Sefton answering the declaration that Mayor Mott was out of town and knew nothing of the affair. This Sefton alleges, is not true. His statement on the matter is as follows:

"I wish to add to the facts herein the statement that will serve to supplement some of the evidence and fix responsibility for the outrage of March 8. It has come to my notice from sources that I believe to be thoroughly reliable that Wilkinson, Mayor Mott's private secretary, telephoned representatives of the Chronicle, Call and Examiner Saturday night to the effect that the mayor was out of town and that he will be something doing Sunday night."

"Also when a policeman struck Mrs. A. P. Johnson and she remonstrated he said: 'You women are all alike; you want to be ruled.' If I argued with the mayor I would lose my job."

Copies of the recommendation have been sent to the Building Trades Council, the Industrial Workers of the World organization and the Socialist party. The Central Labor Council also last night endorsed the Socialist report setting forth seven reasons why the officials should be recalled.

SCHOOL BOARD UNDER FIRE.

The basis of the action against the school directors is the trouble in Hamilton hall, and over the allegations made by School Director Annie Florence Brown on several occasions that the school funds were being disbursed by the board as a result of secret sessions of various committees.

"Miss Brown has been fighting this fight long enough," declared a member of the central committee of the Socialist party this morning. "We feel that the things she stands for amount to a clean and upright use of the school funds and a decent and efficient administration of the school department of this city. The only way this can be effected is by placing school directors in office in place of the present board, who will not make her fight single-handed for right actions of the board of education."

That Miss Annie Florence Brown will not be the only one to be exempted from a general recall which the Socialists declare they will invoke against the city administration is rumored among the Socialist leaders today. Mayor Frank K. Mott, Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Fred C. Turner, Commissioner of Revenue and Finance John Forrest, as a councilman and as a member of the school board, and members of the school board, have been fixed upon by the Socialists and laborites as objects of attack. But whether other councilmen will be included is a question that is dividing the ranks of the recall advocates.

The labor men have no quarrel with Commissioner of Streets W. J. Bacus, according to the Socialists, having nothing against Commissioner of Public Works Harry S. Anderson. It is thought that by including these two in the recall they would hurt their chances, as this course would combine numerous elements against the recall, which at present have no interest in joining forces with the Mott administration.

The question as to who shall be included in the recall will be considered at the session of the Socialist party of Oakland to be held Sunday in Rice hall. At that time a committee will frame the "Statement of Intention to Circulate a Recall Petition," as demanded by the Socialists, and will name the officials against whom the recall is to be invoked and the reasons for the action.

Until this "Statement of Intention to Circulate Petition" is filed, Mayor Mott and his associates will make no reply to the charges being made against them. Mayor Mott declared this morning that he could have no official cognizance of the recall matter until the statement of intention should be filed with the city clerk.

That Mayor Mott assumed responsibility in the matter of driving the Industrial Workers of the World from the streets was made known today when the Mayor was asked as to the charges that he had cognizance of the plan of a week ago Sunday to stop the street speaking.

"I am sure," said Mayor Mott, "that I have great magnanimity in attempting to shoulder all the responsibility in this matter," said Mayor Mott, referring to Turner's declaration of yesterday to the effect that he alone was responsible for the expulsion of the I. W. W. "Commissioner Turner is very generous, but I am the head of this administration. I have repeatedly conferred with Chief of Police Adelbert Wilson, and the latter part of the week, probably Friday or Saturday, before the trouble occurred in the streets, I told Chief Wilson that he must put a stop to the street speaking of these industrial workers."

ASSUMES RESPONSIBILITY.

"This incendiary language and obscene language had to be stopped and I told Chief Wilson to go ahead and stop the speaking or I would be forced to do it, and that he would not stand for that sort of thing. The decent citizens of Oakland do not stand for that sort of thing, I think, and so I am ready to stand all the criticism, if there is any, for this action."

Commissioner Turner reiterated his remarks of yesterday, and emphasized them.

"We don't want such people as these Industrial Workers in Oakland," said Turner. "If the people want that sort of thing, then I shall be glad to get out."

"A man came to me today and told me that he and his wife were invited to a party at Eleven and Broadway only a few weeks ago. The speaker was using some obscene language and this man stepped up and remonstrated with him, stating that his wife was with him and that the speaker should have some consideration for women who might be passing. While he was speaking he was struck from behind and knocked to the ground, and afterwards insulted and attacked."

IN HANDS OF VOTERS.

Commissioner of Streets W. J. Bacus, who was ill yesterday, and could not be seen about the recall, said this morning:

"If they try to recall me, I shall not make a fight. I am conscious of no wrong doing in office. I have served the people to the best of my ability and given faithful service as far as I was able. If the people are not satisfied, I shall make no effort to check them in removing me from office. I place the case entirely in the hands of the voters. If I am in the right and have given good service, then it is not right that I should be called upon to make a political fight to remain in this position. If I have not given good service, then it is well that I should be removed with the least possible effort on the part of the voters."

TO COST $15,000.

That the recall will entail a grave expense, was the statement of City Auditor George Gross this morning. In case the rank and file of the Socialists insist upon making an attempt to recall the entire administration, Gross will be included in the recall measures, but so far no individual criticism has been directed against him.

"A recall election will cost the city at least $15,000," declared Gross this morning. "It does not seem to me that a sufficiently important issue has been raised to make it worth while to spend that amount of money. Several valuable propositions which might be undertaken would be curtailed by the necessity of giving the city a general election cost the city $14,000 and with the women voting, this cost will be considerably increased."

While the rank and file of the Socialist party is said to favor the recall of all the city officials, the present administration and the placing in office of a Socialist administration in its entirety, the leaders have under consideration the propriety of directing the fire of the laborites and the Socialists against those who are generally considered the most responsible of free speech in Oakland. It is possible that there may be a division in the ranks as a result of this division of opinion as to tactics.

TO FILE CIVIL SUITS.

The Socialists are especially bitter about the breaking up of their meetings in Hamilton hall, and over the allegations made by School Director Annie Florence Brown on several occasions that the school funds were being disbursed by the board as a result of secret sessions of various committees.

"Miss Brown has been fighting this fight long enough," declared a member of the central committee of the Socialist party this morning. "We feel that the things she stands for amount to a clean and upright use of the school funds and a decent and efficient administration of the school department of this city. The only way this can be effected is by placing school directors in office in place of the present board, who will not make her fight single-handed for right actions of the board of education."

That Miss Annie Florence Brown will not be the only one to be exempted from a general recall which the Socialists declare they will invoke against the city administration is rumored among the Socialist leaders today. Mayor Frank K. Mott, Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Fred C. Turner, Commissioner of Revenue and Finance John Forrest, as a councilman and as a member of the school board, and members of the school board, have been fixed upon by the Socialists and laborites as objects of attack. But whether other councilmen will be included is a question that is dividing the ranks of the recall advocates.

The labor men have no quarrel with Commissioner of Streets W. J. Bacus, according to the Socialists, having nothing against Commissioner of Public Works Harry S. Anderson. It is thought that by including these two in the recall they would hurt their chances, as this course would combine numerous elements against the recall, which at present have no interest in joining forces with the Mott administration.

The question as to who shall be included in the recall will be considered at the session of the Socialist party of Oakland to be held Sunday in Rice hall. At that time a committee will frame the "Statement of Intention to Circulate a Recall Petition," as demanded by the Socialists, and will name the officials against whom the recall is to be invoked and the reasons for the action.

Until this "Statement of Intention to Circulate Petition" is filed, Mayor Mott and his associates will make no reply to the charges being made against them. Mayor Mott declared this morning that he could have no official cognizance of the recall matter until the statement of intention should be filed with the city clerk.

That Mayor Mott assumed responsibility in the matter of driving the Industrial Workers of the World from the streets was made known today when the Mayor was asked as to the charges that he had cognizance of the plan of a week ago Sunday to stop the street speaking.

"I am sure," said Mayor Mott, "that I have great magnanimity in attempting to shoulder all the responsibility in this matter," said Mayor Mott, referring to Turner's declaration of yesterday to the effect that he alone was responsible for the expulsion of the I. W. W. "Commissioner Turner is very generous, but I am the head of this administration. I have repeatedly conferred with Chief of Police Adelbert Wilson, and the latter part of the week, probably Friday or Saturday, before the trouble occurred in the streets, I told Chief Wilson that he must put a stop to the street speaking of these industrial workers."

ASSUMES RESPONSIBILITY.

"This incendiary language and obscene language had to be stopped and I told Chief Wilson to go ahead and stop the speaking or I would be forced to do it, and that he would not stand for that sort of thing. The decent citizens of Oakland

UNCOMPLETED WORK ON HARBOR IS HANDICAP

Congressman Knowland Urges Expedition, So Appropriation May Come Easier

Declaring that a failure to complete all work contracted for on Oakland's water front each year, leaving an unexpended balance of money appropriated by Congress for the work, seriously handicapped efforts for additional appropriations, Congressman Joseph R. Knowland has written the Chamber of Commerce asking that it use every possible effort to hurry the work. Knowland's statement is as follows:

"As I have stated on many occasions, we can secure the money for appropriations at this end just as rapidly as it can be used, but each year we are confronted with a balance ranging from $20,000 to $50,000, as in the case of this year. I would suggest that from now on every possible effort be made to hurry the work so that when Congress convenes in December and there is another rivers and harbors bill it can be stated that the entire amount has been expended, and we can start out on a clean sheet with a large appropriation. When the engineers state, that in view of the amounts appropriated and not used, they can only make use of a comparatively small amount, it places us at a tremendous disadvantage at this end."

SURVEY OPPOSED.

In the matter of a re-survey of the harbor, notice of which Knowland recently sent to Oakland, he states:

"The committee was opposed to giving us a survey, and I had to insist and go before the committee several times in order to obtain it. They claimed that it would mean the enlargement of the project and more money than required to complete the existing project. I explained that this was probably true, but that we must meet conditions which would arise with the opening of the canal and the demands for greater harbor facilities. By hurrying the survey we can have a report at the next session, at which time I hope all the money appropriated will have been expended. The Congressmen Knowland's request has been taken up by the rivers and harbors committee of the Chamber of Commerce and every effort will be made to expedite the work."

OPEN FIGHT ON 'GREATER SAN FRANCISCO SCHEME'

Members of Chamber of Commerce Condemn Plan to Gobble Alameda County Cities

Oakland's fight against the so-called "Greater San Francisco" movement was brought to a head this morning when resolutions roundly condemning the campaign were passed by the Chamber of Commerce. The declaration of feeling will be given wide publicity and will be followed by a strong fight against what the members declare is an unjustifiable assault.

The following are the resolutions:

Whereas an effort is being put forth to encourage among the citizens of all parts of California a spirit of co-operation in promoting the interests of this great commonwealth, in anticipation of the completion of the Panama canal and of the celebration of that event, and

Whereas there is work enough in prospect to employ all the energies of each city unit in including and carrying forward projects of local development and

Whereas the people of Oakland and other cities on the east shore of the bay of San Francisco embracing a population of 250,000 are doing their part in the extension of municipal enterprise such as the building of a magnificent harbor, by the expenditure of millions of dollars for the accommodations of commerce that will benefit the entire Pacific Coast, and are encouraging the establishment of industrial enterprises under conditions which will mean the largest employment of labor and the promotion of the common prosperity, and

Whereas there has been introduced an agitation for the "amalgamation" of these cities with San Francisco, and it is proposed to invoke the initiative to secure the amendment to the Constitution of California to allow annexation or "amalgamation" across county lines, thereby creating the division or dismemberment of counties, introducing an element of discord, discouraging local enterprise, provoking antagonism between communities, diverting from local development and interfering with the team work that is essential to the best interests of all California, necessitating a state-wide campaign by the cities whose local self-government and separate existence are threatened, now therefore be it

Resolved, that the Chamber of Commerce of Oakland appeals to the sense of justice of the citizens of California to defeat this assault upon the integrity of the self-governing communities about the bay. We submit that the time is inopportune for a revival of the campaign which should have been closed at the last session of the Legislature, when the annexation amendment proposed by a San Francisco representative was defeated. After the protracted discussion in which the merits of this matter were thrashed out on the floor of the Senate, the revival of the issue at this time would be believed to be an attempt to create a false issue, to unsettle conditions, discourage investment and enterprise, and seriously interfere with the present prosperity and progress of communities that are carrying forward great projects for the advancement of the entire state and the maintenance of the commercial prestige of the great harbor whose portal to the Pacific is the Golden Gate and to further the success of the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

Resolved, that we maintain that the money and energy which would be expended by both sides in this controversy could be better used to greater advantage in the promotion of the success of the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

FIGHT FOR RIGHTS.

"We have been sitting back long enough in this matter," former Governor George C. Pardee declared in speaking of the movement. "It is time we were up and doing in fighting for what we believe are our just rights. I know for a fact that many San Francisco people are proselyting for the project which we hoped and thought was effectually buried with the action of the legislature. But now that we find the movement still living and people putting themselves on record for it, many of them misled to do so by advocates of the scheme in San Francisco, we must meet them half way."

Secretary A. A. Denison of the chamber exhibited a small magazine published and being circulated, called "The Greater San Francisco Magazine," in which Oakland is included both in maps and reading matter as a part of San Francisco. Denison said:

"This publication contains pictures of Oakland with extended reading matter, the whole being used to give the impression abroad that Oakland is ready and willing to be considered a part of San Francisco. People will begin to think we favor the project, unless we come out definitely and declare ourselves."

ISSUED BY CIVIC BODY.

The movement was endorsed officially by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce about a week ago and the pamphlet, which is copyrighted by L. E. Burke, is being distributed by that body. In addition to including Oakland as part of "Greater San Francisco," portions of Alameda county as far east as Niles are included both in maps, reading matter and by pictures, while the true or Richmond and surrounding portions of Contra Costa county on the north.

Further plans of campaign against the movement will be worked out at once by a special committee of the chamber which will meet this week and will engage in the warfare other similar organization on the east-bay shore.

LOS ANGELES, March 12.—Miss Viola Carver, the young Tacoma girl, who shot and killed J. Edward Edge, a young realty operator yesterday because she loved him and he did not return her affection, begged the police today to use every effort to bring her people here from the north.

She gave the address of her father and mother as 903 North Kay street, Tacoma, Washington. She asked the police to send her request by telegram so that she could have their aid as soon as possible. Prior to her appeal to the police, she had waited in vain for any word from her relatives.

No arrangement for Miss Carver's appearance in court at a preliminary examination has been made and it was said that matter would not be set until after the coroner had held an inquest over the body of Edge, a procedure that was expected to be ordered today.

Edge, it was stated, met Miss Carver in a music store where she was employed and where he made frequent purchases. Edge was said to have been devoted to his mother and to his music, which he followed as an amateur and to have had no intimate acquaintance among women.

AMUNDSEN DID NOT SEE SCOTT

Norwegian Hopes That English Explorer Reached the South Pole.

HOBART, Tasmania, March 12.—Captain Roald Amundsen, the discoverer of the South Pole, said today he thought it quite possible that Captain Robert F. Scott, the British explorer, also had attained the Pole. He hoped so, at least. His own base, he said, was 500 miles from that of the British party and his winter camp was nearer the Pole than Scott's. He had no idea at the time that Captain Scott had started for the Pole.

Captain Amundsen has received thousands of congratulatory messages. He announced that he will remain here until the Fram sails. He will then begin two months' lecture tour in Australia and then will point the Fram at Buenos Ayres. From that port he will proceed on the Fram to the Arctic Ocean by way of the Bering straits.

Yesterday Amundsen went for an automobile ride with Henry D. Baker, the American Consul, and later dined with him. He was telling concerning his experiences at the Pole, but said that Shackleton's expedition took a much more difficult route than he did.

$15,000 DEBT.

CHRISTIANIA, March 12.—Captain Roald Amundsen's debts on account of his South polar expedition amount to seventy thousand kroner (approximately $15,000). A special committee has been organized to appeal to the Norwegians to subscribe this amount so as to cable Amundsen at Hobart that his debts have been paid. Later a national subscription for the benefit of the explorer will be opened.

DAMAGE CASE IS BEING RETRIED

Owing to this reversal by the Appellate Court of the case wherein First Parkin received $2000 damages from the Grayson-Overen Company for injuries received in an accident in 1904, the case is being tried again before Superior Judge Wells in the Superior Court, with Attorney Stanley Moore representing the Grayson-Overen Company. The case was reversed on the ground that the court had given excessive instructions to the jury. Jurors for the new trial are being selected today.

Like Comfort?

Then what's the use of breaking down your vigor when there's a way to make and keep your daily life comfortable?

Most persons need all the vitality they can secure. Some have an excess and proceed to destroy it with one or more of the sedative drugs—among the most common of which are coffee and tea. They could use that vigor to "get ahead" in business or whatever pursuit they are engaged in, but, strange to say, many prefer to nullify it with drugs.

However, each one must make choice and pay the bill.

The one who can cut out coffee and tea when they are known to cause sleepless nights and nervous troubles will surely win the laurels.

The change from coffee or tea and their aches and ills to well-made with health and comfort, is really quite easy.

Postum has a dark brown color which changes to rich golden brown when cream is added, and the snappy, distinctive flavor (when made according to directions) is very like the mild, high grades of Java coffee.

The change brings refreshing sleep, drives out the coffee and tea troubles and the old condition of health and comfort returns.

There's really no joy and comfort on earth quite so satisfying as the perfect poise of mind and body—generally yours for the taking.

INSOMNIA

Leads to Madness, if Not Remedied in Time.

"Experiments satisfied me, some five years ago," writes a Topeka woman, "that coffee was the direct cause of the insomnia from which I suffered terribly, as well as the extreme nervousness and acute dyspepsia which made life a most painful thing for me."

"I had been a coffee-drinker since childhood, and did not think that the beverage was doing me all this harm. (Tea is just as harmful, because it contains caffeine, the same drug found in coffee.) But it was, and the time came when I had to face the fact, and protect myself. I therefore gave it up, abruptly and absolutely, and adopted Postum for my hot drink at meals."

"I began to note improvement in my condition very soon after I took on Postum. The change proceeded gradually, but surely, and it was a matter of only a few weeks before I found myself entirely relieved. The nervousness passed away, my digestive apparatus was restored to normal efficiency, and I began to sleep restfully and peacefully."

"These happy conditions have continued and I am safe in saying that I owe them entirely to Postum, for when I began to drink it I ceased to use medicines." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

EDUCATORS SHY AT TAKING BIG JUMP

President Wheeler Glad to Be Back After Trip to the East.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, March 12.—Announcements are expected soon from President Wheeler, who returned from an eastern trip yesterday, of new man he has found to fill vacancies in the faculty. This was one of the purposes of his journey, but he declared upon his arrival that the distance of Berkeley from the educational market had made his task difficult. After his arrival he said:

"The trip was worth, while, but I begrudge the weeks that I have spent out of California. California has been so kindly toward man when all the rest of the world is raw and cold. The California hillside certainly looked good to me when I came down off the Sierras this morning."

"Pittsburg certainly is a breezy place, instinct with a tremendous power of advance and upbuilding. It is a splendid idea that they have of anchoring some of those waste millions right here. When I see how places like Virginia City, Nev., have let millions escape from them and go off as dowries to dukedoms in England, and when I see the stretching wastes of gravel at Dutch Flat, with no traces of the gold that came out of it left, I can see the reason why Pittsburg should be alert in saving what belongs to it."

President Wheeler visited his friend, Colonel Roosevelt, at Oyster Bay, and was shown a lot of interesting letters and trophies.

Dr. Wheeler was one of the speakers at the meeting of the National Civic Federation in Washington on March 5 and 6.

VITRIOL THROWER IS NOT CAPTURED

Sacramento Police Release the Man Suspected of Attack on San Francisco Girl.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—The San Francisco police wired the Sacramento authorities this morning instructing them to release the young man held on suspicion of being Van Camp Redfern, the Lowell high school lad who two years ago attempted to destroy the beauty of Miss Ruth Frances Wilson, and is now Mrs. Theodore Levy, by throwing vitriol in her face.

The officers have learned that the suspect is not Redfern but Frank McGovern and says for the fact that he is about the same height as Redfern and is badly cracked he bears no striking resemblance to the much wanted youth. The news of the capture of the supposed Redfern in Sacramento last night was communicated to the local police and they were at first certain that they had the right man in custody. This morning, however, Detective Wren and Morrison compared photos and they had been mistaken and a telegram to the chief of police at Sacramento was sent at 10 o'clock.

This afternoon during the funeral the courts will remain closed, most of the jurists planning to attend.

DON'T BE BALD

Almost Any One May Secure a Splendid Growth of Hair.

You can easily find out for yourself if your hair needs nourishment. If it is thinning, getting dry, harsh and brittle, or splitting at the ends. You simply have to pull a hair from the top of your head, and closely examine its root. If the bulb is plump and rosy it is all right; if it is white and shrunken your hair is diseased and needs nourishment.

We have a remedy for hair troubles that cannot be surpassed. It has a record of growing hair and curing baldness in 93 out of 100 cases where used according to directions for a reasonable length of time. It will even grow hair on bald heads if the scalp is not glazed and shiny. That may seem like a strong statement—it is, sure we mean it to be, and no one should doubt it until they have put our claims to an actual test.

We are so sure that Revall "93" Hair Tonic will completely eradicate dandruff, prevent baldness, stimulate the scalp and hair roots, stop falling hair and grow new hair, that we personally give our positive guarantee to refund every penny paid us for Revall "93" Hair Tonic in every instance where it does not do as we claim or give entire satisfaction to the user.

Revall "93" Hair Tonic is as pleasant to use as clear spring water. It is perfumed with a pleasant odor, and does not grease or gum the hair. We have it in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. FITZ COMES BACK IN GREAT FETTER

And if You Don't Believe It Ask His Wife's Affinity--at Hospital.

CHICAGO, March 12.—"Lanky Bob" Fitzsimmons, former heavyweight champion, essayed a come-back late yesterday and managed a good one. He encountered "Jack" Taylor, the winner of the attentions of Bob's estranged wife, Julia Gifford, and when the brief battle was over Taylor was a sad looking object.

Fitzsimmons had been separated from his wife eight months. Most of this time he has been looking for Taylor. He arrived in town a week ago. Yesterday afternoon he met Taylor in a local office building and invited him outside. Taylor refused to go, and Fitzsimmons pounced upon him and trimmed him in most proper shape.

"And I'm going to beat you up every time I see you," said Fitz, as he glowered at the prostrate, bleeding form of his adversary.

No complaint was made to the police by either Taylor or Mrs. Fitzsimmons.

NOTABLE PROGRAM AT THE BROADWAY

Mid-Week Change to Bring Class 'A' Acts to Favorite Theater.

Tonight is the last time of a notable program at the Broadway for tomorrow the regular mid-week change takes place. The program for the first half has been a highly satisfactory one and the two big features "The Wallstein Trio," sensational and comedy skaters, and Adolpho, the Italian accordionist, are two great acts.

Tomorrow's all new program will consist of the following vaudeville numbers that presage good news for the Broadway's patrons:

The Georgia Trio are three high class entertainers in the singing, dancing and comedy line that are sure to meet with the same approval that they have elsewhere on the circuit. Fulmer, an eccentric comedy juggler will offer something away from the old hackneyed stuff that this line of performers usually offer. Edith Mellor "The Irish Thrush," who was featured last year with Sousa's band as the principal soloist, will make her initial vaudeville bow to an Oakland audience at the Broadway tomorrow.

Varin and Varin are said to have something new and novel in the musical and singing line. Farina is a man whose whistling and imitating has carried him all over the world and he will no doubt help to round out what looks like a bill of vaudeville that would be hard to beat at many times more the Broadway price of admission.

There will also be four reels of never before seen in Oakland motion pictures that with the five vaudeville numbers makes a program that takes up at least two hours.

MAN DROWNS WITH HELP NOT FAR AWAY

SACRAMENTO, March 12.—Because the sounds of his struggles in the water and tules of Tule Lake near Walnut Grove, were mistaken for those of a hog seeking food, Angelo Biago, an Italian, was drowned Thursday night within easy reach of help.

A Japanese living near the spot heard his struggles but attributed them to a hog. Yesterday Biago's body was found.

TWO MEN INJURED BY PECULIAR ACCIDENT

GAVIOTA, Cal., March 12.—Two men, F. McLaughlin and E. S. Childers were seriously burned today in the Alcatraz Oil Refinery when a glass box, containing refined oil, exploded.

The receptacle became heated and exploded, scattering oil about and filling the room with gas. A workman inadvertently turned on an electric switch and the spark ignited the gas. The room soon was in flames. Childers was overcome and was carried out by McLaughlin. The men were taken to a hospital in Santa Barbara.

His mother, Mrs. Ellen Pereira, is critically ill in San Francisco and has not yet been told of her son's demise. The Old Store Closes Tonight at 6 P. M.

Constant Progress Through Constant Effort

COMPLETED it stands, awaiting only the remainder of the merchandise for its doors to open.

We are glad that the end of our preparations is in sight and that we are so soon to welcome you to a Greater Capwells, which is the same Capwells, only in a new dress. However, the old one, though cast aside, will not be forgotten. We had many good years in that old dress, and we will cherish its memory with tenderness—but the beauty of the new is irresistible.

We believe we have built a store equal in every respect to the finest in the land. The judgment of those free from our prejudice confirms this opinion.

There is a wealth of luxurious, comfort-giving appliances in every part of it. All of the leading department stores of America and Europe have contributed their share of new ideas, new methods and improved service plans. No line of investigation was overlooked and the result is that no other store in the country is more modern, more comfortable or more convenient for patrons or employees. The utmost consideration has been given the latter by surrounding them while at work, with every condition known to modern sanitation and hygiene. To this end most valuable space from a rental standpoint, beautiful, sunny outside lunch and work rooms have been set aside for them. In some respects the building has not its counterpart in any other city in the world. We are proud of it, and we want you to be, for it is yours—a magnificent tribute to your confidence in our merchandise and business methods. It is Everybody's store—for ALL the people the best store—that has always been, and will remain our endeavor to insure for all the people the best their money, whether much or little, can buy, the quickest and most courteous service, the pleasantest and most convenient store arrangements.

We want you to be with us next Saturday to share the pleasure and pride we feel in presenting this beautiful commercial institution to the people of Oakland and surrounding country. Though it is large and the appointments the finest we could get, withal it is charmingly homelike and restful and this was what we sought—to give you not only a bigger and handsomer store, but a better one, for the point of real importance is not how fine, but how good, a store it is to be.

The Same Old Policy Will Prevail

Those who have known this old store are not curious as to what we shall do in the new. Our policy is as old as the history of the institution itself—the very oldest thing we are going to take and keep with us. The same precepts upon which our past successes have been built will be the creed we shall build upon in the days to come, and now at the beginning of our best years we are convinced that we cannot find strength in any other. Tomorrow we will print the simple tenets of this business creed to tell you that we are still relying upon them for whatever progress and betterment we shall strive to make in the new store.

The New Store Opens Saturday Afternoon and Evening, March 16th, With a Public Reception and Exclusive Fashion Show.

DISEMBARK ON ICE

CHICAGO, March 12.—Thirty-one men and one woman, members of the crew of the steamer Flora M. The steamer left Kenosha Sunday and last night became lodged in the ice and sprang a leak.

Bolles, local United States Inspector of hills, will tender his resignation from that office on Friday. The resignation will be accepted by Superintending Inspector John K. Bulger and an appointment made to fill the vacancy. Captain James Guthrie and Thomas P. Deering, assistant local inspectors of hills, are applicants for the position.

SECOND WILL IS FILED BY SPITZER HEIRS

SAN JOSE, March 12.—A will found since the first was denied probate a week ago was filed yesterday by heirs of the late Lewis A. Spitzer, assessor here for thirty years, who died a month ago at his office desk. The first will filed, purporting to be an holographic will, was denied probate because it was written on office stationery which had four printed words in its heading.

The second will, which was drawn a short time afterward, makes practically the same disposition of the property, giving it all into the custody of the widow, who has since been appointed by the supervisors to the vacancy caused by the death of her husband.

The Recall of Pilate's Decision.

Hon. Philip P. Campbell made a neat retort to Colonel Roosevelt when he told the Rough Rider that the first recorded instance of a judicial decision being recalled was when the judgment of Pontius Pilate acquitting Jesus of Nazareth was reversed by popular vote. By the same vote that the populace delivered Jesus to crucifixion the thief Barabbas was given acquittal and liberty. We quote from the Gospel of St. Mark:

"And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call King of the Jews?"

"And they cried out again, Crucify him."

"Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him."

"And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified."

Thus was the judicial decision of Pilate recalled and a precedent established. To content the people Barabbas was released and Jesus crucified. Now Colonel Roosevelt proposes to establish a system of jurisprudence on the precedent established in Palestine when Pontius Pilate was Governor and Tiberius Emperor of Rome. But the significance of the example appears to be lost to those who are so anxious to have it followed in this day and age.

Being pinned down to a plain statement of its position, the Stockton Record admits that it is in favor of putting sugar on the free list. It has much to say about the big sugar refiners and the Boston Home Market Club, but it declines to consider the beet and cane growers as having any interest in the controversy. We refer to La Follette-Roosevelt Progressive contemporary to the beet growers of California. If it can satisfy them that free sugar will benefit their business it has greater persuasive powers than it has yet exhibited. But let him explain first why all the big refiners are in favor of taking the duty off sugar.

Money Lenders and Borrowers.

There may be a Money Trust, but the refusal of banks to lend money without security is no proof that there is one. Banks cannot afford to lend money unless reasonably protected against loss. They would destroy their business and lose the money of their depositors if they did. If they failed in this duty the law would step in and compel them to conduct their business in a safe and prudent manner.

It is complained by some promoters that they cannot borrow money to finance railway enterprises because they are "in bad" with the Money Trust. What does this amount to? Simply that the banks refuse to lend money on insufficient collateral. Doubtless they are more careful in this respect than they were a few years ago, but there is a good reason for the conservatism. "Wildcat" banking caused a number of disastrous financial wrecks and sent a lot of plunging bankers to prison. In consequence banking laws have been made more strict and are enforced more rigidly than formerly. Thus the lesson of disaster is enforced by the mandate of the law.

Of course moral hazard still cuts a large figure in banking, but that element is governed by reason and experience. A successful operator can borrow money on a proposition that would be turned down if presented by another man with a record of failure and loss behind him. Two propositions might be intrinsically equal, but one will be accepted and the other declined because success, demonstrated capacity, sound judgment and business acumen are on one side, while failure, incapacity and visionary methods are on the other. Bankers don't want to lend money on unsuccessful projects nor to unsuccessful men; but they are glad to finance successful enterprises and give credit to successful operators.

It is the unsuccessful who complain that this is an evidence of unfair dealing. It is the law of human nature as well as of business. It is the law of intelligent discrimination, of safety, of integrity in dealing with funds handled in a fiduciary capacity.

The "straw vote" continues to enthusiastically reflect the wishes of the persons who take it. An editor desirous of showing that public opinion is opposed to prohibition laws sends around to the nearest saloon and polls the crowd with the result that everybody in the place votes against prohibition except the bum who has just been refused a drink. Still the "straw vote" continues to be the high card in straw politics. It is the joker in the pack, so to speak, for those who play politics as a pea-and-shell game.

Beauties of the Recall.

In Oakland it is proposed to invoke the recall in behalf of riot and disorder and in repudiation of the law and its constituted agents. That is what comes of putting in the hands of fifteen per cent of the voters the power to take away an office that only a majority can confer.

Under our charter it requires a majority of all the votes cast to elect, but on petition of fifteen per cent an elective official can be compelled to give up his office or stand for another election, in which he must again receive a majority of all the votes cast or be recalled. Professional agitators, some of them aliens, propose to employ this excellent provision of the charter to place mob rule above law and order. The primary and elementary functions of government are being attacked by the unstable and migratory elements of society, who are using a weapon made ready to their hands by men who would not listen to reason.

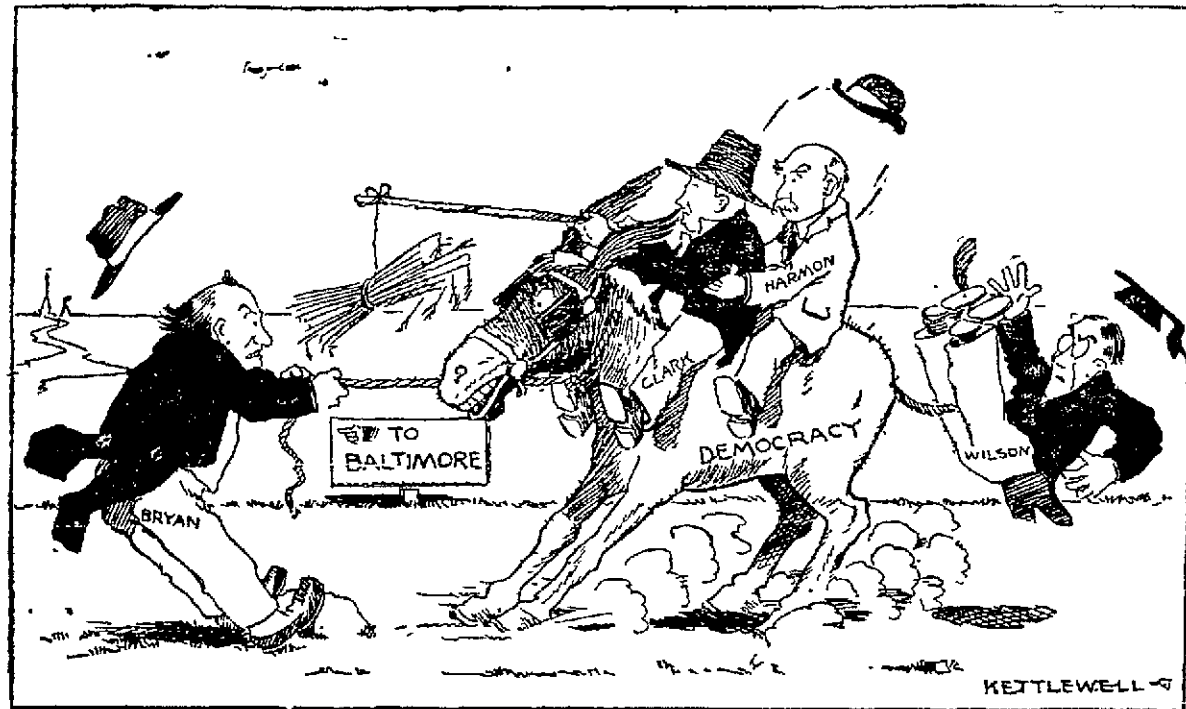

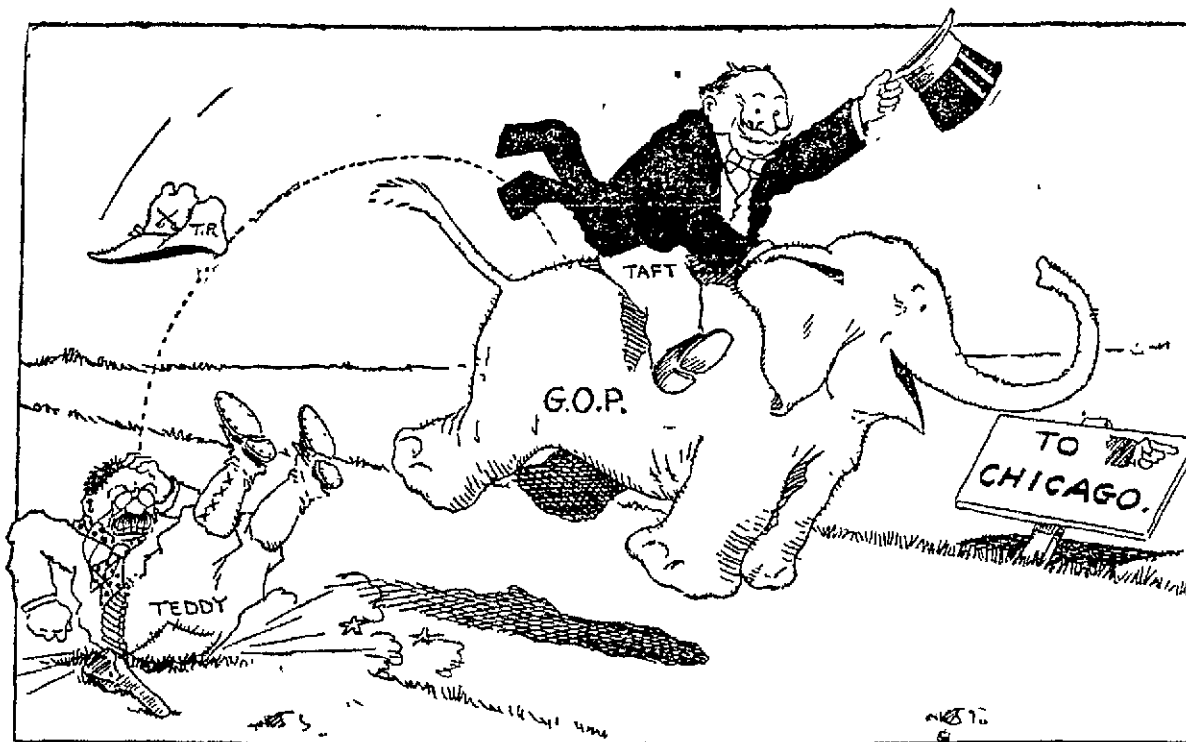

We have no fear that the threatened recall can be successful, but an interim election will throw the city into confusion and bring out antagonisms and covert schemes utterly unrelated to the issue upon which it is proposed to invoke the recall.

In case the recall should be successful it would be heralded as a victory for Socialism and disorder, and the city would suffer in reputation because certain disgruntled political forces joined hands with lawless disturbers to overthrow the municipal administration.

Colonel Roosevelt is still silent on the tariff. This is a question that he has steadily dodged ever since he first became President. Just before he went out of office he was asked about it and made this characteristic response: "That's Taft's skunk; let him skin it." His New Nationalism omits all mention of this vital economic question.

"Hurrah for the Bullcrats!" exclaims the Sacramento Bee. Bullcrats is a term employed to describe the supporters of Roosevelt. While ago they were supporting La Follette. Then they should have gone under the name of "Bobocrats." They are willing to be called anything so long as they are called to the pie counter.

THEY ARE ON THE WAY

BY THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE CARTOONIST

Ireland Proposes to Intervene.

There is a frantic call for the United States to intervene in Mexico. It is our national duty, so the interventionists claim, to put a stop to the disorder across the Rio Grande, the idea being, apparently, that Uncle Sam is an international policeman.

It appears that the passion for intervention is spreading. It has been communicated to Ireland, where public feeling is much disturbed over the disorder prevailing in England. The peaceful, order-loving Irish are shocked and outraged at the riots and barbarities to be witnessed in the sister island. It disturbs the peace of Ireland and some think the time has arrived for the Irish to stop it. Mr. John Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists in the House of Commons, is of the opinion that it is Ireland's duty to intervene in England. In a published interview he declared that it might become necessary for Ireland to take drastic measures to restore order in England. He said:

"Ireland must be gravely disturbed by the present disorders across St. George's Channel. It is plain that we cannot remain passive witnesses of such a disorder. The time for intervention may not yet be ripe, but when it comes Ireland will perform her duty. The Irish cannot and will not permit a continuation of the present anarchy so near their own boundary."

According to the New York Sun, from which Mr. Redmond's interview is taken, says a mobilization of Irish troops has been ordered and transports are ready to transport them to Bristol if British conditions do not improve. This is sarcasm of course, but it is fully as sensible as a lot of the intervention stuff appearing in the American press. Uncle Sam would forever have his nose in somebody else's business and his hands full of trouble if some nervous and excitable people had their way.

From the Des Moines Capital-Leader we learn that Senator Cummins is a candidate still—very still.

That political symbol, the cocked hat, has reached Ireland, as we learn from the London Daily Mail, which says:

"When Mr. Lorcan Sherlock was formally installed yesterday as Lord Mayor of Dublin, Miss Harrison, the first and only woman member of the corporation, was a conspicuous figure in her red robes and cocked hat."

The Mail adds that Miss Harrison is "a prominent reform advocate." Thus fashion travels and political usage spreads.

The present storm is the heaviest of the season. It is well distributed over the State, and is accompanied by a heavy fall of snow in the mountains. Hence growing crops will not only be refreshed, but water for irrigation and power purposes is assured for the summer months. Grain and hay crops are made a certainty by the precipitation which began Monday night. There is now every promise of a prosperous season for the farmers. It follows that business should be good. Now is the time to advertise.

To Joaquin Miller, the Poet of the Sierra

Sweet as the sheen the dewdrops slip at dawn,
Thy purity of song sifts through the heart;
The radiance of its lights hath inward shone
To bid the shadows from the soul depart
As soars the lark beyond the fragrant mead,
To bear the breath of wild flowers to the skies;
His to greet the sphere that purifies
Earth's sweetness with its own; and, scattering seed
Of scented truth upborne upon the wing
Of song, 'tis thine to seek an upper light
Beyond life's clouds, while we up-gazing sing
A timid greeting to thy venturesome flight,
And long to hark our being in the air
Where none but thee and such sweet singers dare.

SERMONS IN BRIEF

THE HATRED OF SIN.

(By Rev. W. W. Case, pastor of Shattuck Ave. M. E. Church.)

"I hate every false way." Psalm 119:123

It is wrong to hate people, but right to hate sin. God is said to hate sin. The Psalmist often uses the expression. It is a commendable spirit in any man to hate every evil way.

"Oh, do not this abominable thing which I hate," saith the Lord.

Why does God hate sin? Not merely because it is disobedience and rebellion against Himself. Not because God happens to have committed Himself in giving a certain law, and must now at all sacrifices sustain that course to which He is committed. Nor is it because His own authority is insulted. But God hates sin because sin destroys the happiness of His stunning creatures. This is the fundamental reason. God loves to have His creatures happy. Therefore God must hate sin. Therefore is sin that abominable thing which He utterly hates, and never can see without grief and abhorrence.

Therefore He says, "Cease to do evil; learn to do well." "Turn ye turn ye, from your evil ways, for why will ye die, O house of Israel." "Do not this abominable thing."

Do it not for the Lord's sake. Think of the relation in which you stand to Him. Think of the favors and blessings which you have received from Him. Think of the many good resolutions you have made.

Do it not for the world's sake. "Evil communications corrupt good manners." "One sinner destroyeth much good." "Do it not for your family's sake. Example is far more powerful than precept. Do it not for your own sake. Sin is a reproach to any people and to any person. Sin is a troublesome thing. There is no peace to the wicked, saith the Lord.

RELIGIOUS SUPPLIES

It isn't generally known, but it is nevertheless true, that we carry one of the most complete lines of religious goods on the Coast. Our stock comprises practically every requisite for every denomination.

Right now interest centers naturally to hand Bibles, prayers and hymnals, separate or together, of which we have a splendid assortment, at prices ranging from

50c to $15.00

There is no better time to make a gift than during the days of Lent—but the remembrance should be, preferably, of a religious nature.

May we have the pleasure of suggesting something appropriate from our stock?

HUMAN ADVANCEMENT

That the topsy-turvy convulsion in human affairs the world over is owing to the processes of the law of contraries—nature's equivalent for the Sherman law—is a theory that finds strong proof in the conflict of opinions and mass of inconsistencies that enlivened the proceedings of the Association for the Advancement of Science, a body normally given to cold facts and sober thought. For the first time, perhaps the irreverent layman revealed in the introduction of new and novel solutions of every riddle that goes to make this the age of problems and left glad that he had come.

Among the affiliated bodies of the organization is the Eudæmon Association, and it was during a symposium of papers on the advancement of the higher animal life that W. M. Hays, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, lifted the discussion out of the rut of exact science as applied to cattle and swine in the matter of breeding and branding.

A world-wide mission field lies before the breeders, according to the expansive scheme urged upon them by Mr. Hays. The doctrine of the survival of the fittest and the law of heredity are antagonistic forces in the economy of the human family, and unless the false sentiment that permits the unfit to survive generation upon generation is overcome the human race cannot rise above its present level. Let every person on earth be subjected to a physical ordeal and given a separate number, together with a certificate giving the condition of his health. Then deny marriage to the unfit, or at least limit the number of offspring, and, on the other hand, encourage childbirth among the fit. Pit one race against another in the development of the best of the species, and have the new elite become a "religion." The speaker went on to explain that by a course of "genetic efficiency" a race may make itself stronger for economic contests among the races of the world, and "would increase the number of geniuses and leaders."

Just how the millions who fall below the summary law of the new system are to be got rid of is left to the imagination. In cattle breeding the runt and weaklings are sent to the butcher's block, but, of course, a more scientific way would be found to deal with those whom the census branded as undesirable. The proposition has the virtue of being novel and original, all the more so, coming from a man who has devoted himself to the task of making two blades grow where one grew before—quite a contrary ambition from making one mortal grow where two grew before. Could the law of contraries go further?

20 YEARS AGO IN OAKLAND

The wedding of Miss Lillie F. Thomas and D. F. Oliver took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thomas, today. The Thomas home at 1299 East Fourteenth street was the scene of the ceremony. Only a few friends and relatives attended.

Miss Mabel Meyer was the guest of honor last night at a surprise party. Among those present were Miss Lena Jefferson, Miss Theresa Ross, Miss Lucy Olsen, Miss Dora Ballard, Miss Mattie Wyckoff, Frank Reed, Harry Baker, Archie Ballard and others.

Rev. R. F. Coyle, a new minister here, has started a movement for beautifying the city's property about Lake Merritt, which he states, is the best possible site for a municipal park. A large part of the land was recently deeded to the city by the Oakland Waterfront Company.

Fred Becker, in an interview to THE TRIBUNE, made a vigorous appeal yesterday for the bonds. "They should be supported by every laborer," said he.

The Stewart and Trowbridge block, in Berkeley, was partially destroyed by fire today. The property was situated at the corner of Dwight way and Shattuck avenue, and was valued at several thousand dollars.

The Apollo Dancing Club gave an affair last night at Elite Hall. Among those in charge of the affair were Frank Moore, J. McCrudden, F. C. Thayer, Miss Lottie Wemble, Mrs. Emma Adams, Miss Clara Jordan, F. Darragh.

Beckley has sold out its $50,000 bond issue to eastern capitalists, according to the announcement made today. The bonds are recallable in twenty years, and were all taken by bankers.

A gypsy festival will be given this evening in Washington Hall, East Oakland, under the direction of the Epworth Guards of the Eighth Avenue church. Mr. and Mrs. Pailand will direct the affair.

ANOTHER FACTORY FOR RICHMOND

$25,000 Dyeing and Cleaning Plant Secures Big Building Site.

RICHMOND, March 12.—A company has been organized for the purpose of establishing here a large dyeing, dyeing and bleaching plant, which is backed by Oakland and San Francisco capital. A site has been secured on Second street, near Macdonald, where a temporary plant will be installed immediately, pending the erection of a building and plant to cost upward of $25,000. George Medina, for a long time past in charge of the dyeing department of the Pacific War shop, has resigned his position to assume charge of the operations of the new company and plant.

This is the second factory to establish here since the first of the year, the other being the Olson packing and mail box factory, now in active operation in the canal district.

The two new establishments will add materially to the number of men being employed in Richmond and still other factories are in sight for location here in the immediate future. The dyeing and bleaching plant expects to do business in Oakland, San Francisco and other nearby cities.

RECALL MAY BE DELAYED

Legal Entanglements Check Proceedings; Council Is "At Sea."

RICHMOND, March 12.—After a strenuous day yesterday in Judge Seawell's division of the Superior court in San Francisco, where they were summoned to show cause why the temporary injunction issued against their calling a special election for their own recall, should not be made permanent, which injunction they had already disobeyed by calling the election for April 8, the mayor and members of the city council returned and went into session last night hardly knowing "where they were at."

The injunction suit was brought by T. H. Moore, representing those who do not favor the recall election, and the hearing went over until next Thursday, at which time argument will be heard on the merits of the case. The prevailing opinion is that these legal entanglements will result in the postponement of the recall election to an indefinite period. No action was taken on the matter by the council at its session last night.

TELEGRAPH OFFICIALS VISITING RICHMOND

RICHMOND, March 12.—Superintendent May of the first district, Special Agent Jones and District Superintendent of Equipment A. W. Douglas, of the Western Union Telegraph company, officially opened the new building, the date of the company's headquarters in the heart of the business district of this city, after inspection of the new quarters. These gentlemen state that they see in Richmond a large field for the development of his volume of business. D. W. Walker will be the local manager for the company. The change is a much needed convenience for the business man and others.

REAL ESTATE DEALER RELEASED FROM JAIL

RICHMOND, March 12.—William McDaniels, a prominent realty man here, arrested on complaint of C. C. Clark for obtaining money under false pretenses, has just been released from custody with consent of the plaintiff. The troubles resulting in his incarceration came as a result of operations in a building and loan company and the money difficulties were adjusted in court to the satisfaction of all concerned and after a week in jail McDaniels is now again a free man. He denies any intention of irregularity.

HAYWARD BOASTS OF NEW LODGE

Knights of Columbus Organized at Meeting in All Saints' Church.

HAYWARD, March 12.—A lodge of Knights of Columbus was launched here yesterday at a meeting held in the vestry of All Saints' Roman Catholic church, of which Rev. Father Vilomont is pastor. It will be known as Hayward lodge, No. 1615, Knights of Columbus. Officers were elected but their names will be kept secret until later. It is rumored that Mayor J. J. Gill, of San Leandro, was elected president. It is known that several prominent residents of San Leandro were elected to high office.

The charter contains the names of forty prominent Roman Catholic citizens of Hayward, Pleasanton, San Lorenzo and other nearby towns. The organization was effected with the co-operation of Vincent Dodd, of Oakland. On Sunday, April 21, the members will be initiated and officers installed by the Stockton degree team. Arrangements are being made for a large gathering of Knights on that date.

NEW CENTER TO BE ORGANIZED

San Leandro Civic Organization Will Be Formed; Tentative Officers.

SAN LEANDRO, March 12.—A San Leandro center of the California Civic League will be permanently organized tonight by the public spirited women of this place at a meeting in the auditorium of the public library building, which has been offered for the use of the center by the library trustees.

A nomination and constitution committee of five will present a list of tentative officers for election by the women, about 50, who formed the body at a public meeting held last week. A constitution and by-laws will also be submitted for approval. Following the election of officers and adoption of the constitution a study of local political conditions will be made that the women may vote intelligently at the coming election on April 8, when a bitter fight is expected between the anti-saloon forces, marshalled by the local branch of the W. C. T. U., and the liquor interests.

On the nomination committee are: Mrs. A. B. Carr, Mrs. Monroe Drew, Mrs. D. U. Coffey, Mrs. W. S. Peters and Mrs. C. H. Miller.

NAVY YARD NOTES

MARE ISLAND, March 12.—The navy department has ordered that the Pacific reserve squadron, consisting of the Pennsylvania, Oregon, St. Louis and Raleigh, now at the Bremerton navy yard, is to be known hereafter as the Pacific reserve fleet, the change having been made necessary by the determination to keep in reserve more than the number of vessels constituting a squadron, which is eight.

The reserve squadron is to be augmented by the Texas, Oklahoma, Cleveland, Chattanooga, Milwaukee, West Virginia, Galveston, Charleston, Davis and Fox.

Commander W. J. Terhune has been detached as chief of staff of the Pacific cruiser fleet, with headquarters on board the cruiser California, to command the Pennsylvania at Bremerton.

Middleman James R. Okie Jr. is a passenger on the liner coming to Mare Island under arrest, with the probability that he will be court martialed at this station. Notification of the charges preferred against him have not yet reached the yard. Okie was a member of last year's class at the Naval Academy and has been in the service for several months.

Surgeon Holton C. Curl is at last to report for duty at the Mare Island Hospital. He has been ordered to the Philippines last fall, the outbreak of trouble in China necessitated the navy department's pressing him into service with the United States expedition to the Philippines.

Commander Charles A. Brand, formerly of the battleship Oregon, has been ordered to the yard hospital, received orders yesterday to proceed to the hospital for treatment. Commander Brand was recently ordered before a reviewing board, but will make a fight to remain in active service.

The cruiser Maryland, Captain John Elliott commanding, which is now on patrol duty in the Pacific zone, will arrive here on or about April 15.

Bremerton dispatches confirm the report that eight big ships will soon be ordered around the world from the Atlantic. The Bremerton dispatches state that the cruisers Washington and Tennessee are now being put in shape on the torpede coast for return to the Pacific, where they will be stationed to strengthen the fleet.

Authority has been asked by the light-house inspector of this district for the installation of a new foremast on the Madrona and word from the navy department is awaited. If authorized the work will necessitate the tender remaining here for a couple of weeks longer than originally estimated. All other jobs on it will be completed before March 14.

It was learned yesterday that Lieutenant Wayne J. Osburn, U. S. N., who has been doing duty on the Atlantic station, has been ordered to the Pacific zone, where he will be stationed to strengthen the fleet.

Powers died at the Providence hospital in Oakland some three weeks ago, his injuries having been received when a pipe in the engine room burst scalding him with the escaping steam.

"The Water of Eternal Youth"

(From Home Queen)

The beauties of the Austrian court used a lotion which was so effective in keeping the face smooth and free from wrinkles, even in the aged, they named it the "water of eternal youth."

Some one recently has divulged the secret of this wonderful, though exceedingly simple wrinkle lotion, which in her gratitude she has similarly dubbed a preserver of youth. One ounce pure salixite (powdered), dissolved in a half pint witch hazel—that's all there is to it. Any woman can get these ingredients at her drug store, put them together, and use the solution with entire safety. To bathe the face in the same brings immediate results, even in case of the deeper wrinkles and furrows. This is also effective for hanging cheeks and double chin.

FOREIGNERS ABANDON CANTON

Brigands Loot City and Prepare to Oust Local and Provincial Governments
Streets Run With Blood When First Attack Is Made; 350 Are Slain

HONG KONG, March 12.—The situation at Canton, where revolutionaries under Luk, a brigand chief are endeavoring to oust the local and provincial governments, is regarded by the consular authorities here as more alarming. European missionaries have been ordered to quit the territory at once and all the available river vessels are being pressed into service to bring refugees to this city. The Honan yesterday brought 1700 passengers and the Fat Shan carried 1500 more.

Several British boats are waiting at their piers in Canton today. On account of the danger of the sudden trouble there are keeping up steam, ready to depart on the instant. The boats stationed off Canton are cleared for action, and even the stokers are armed.

The fighting at Canton began with an attack by brigands several days ago and has continued constantly ever since. In various parts of the suburbs, the attack began to assume serious proportions when the soldiers in the forts suddenly mutinied and surrendered the forts to Luk's men.

The invaders equipped themselves from the arsenal and with modern guns and ammunition took possession of the admiralty building. The number of persons killed or seriously wounded thus far is estimated by refugees at 350.

The followers of Luk are meeting with stubborn resistance and one of their chiefs has been captured by the loyal troops.

AMBULANCE MEETS LAUNCH PARTY

Virginia Maid in a State of Collapse After Trip on Stormy Bay.

ALAMEDA, March 12.—"Never again," says Miss Mary Woolwine, a fair Virginian, who is a guest at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lee, on Regent street, "the 'never again' does not apply to all of California, for the Virginia girl very much in love with most of it; in fact, about all of it except San Francisco Bay.

Lee and his wife and Judge R. B. Tappan planned a three-day cruise on the bay in the launch Carrie L. as one of the chief parties of the return trip to the Virginia maid before she left for Los Angeles to spend the spring. The start was made from the Aeolian clubhouse Saturday and the cruise extended to Sausalito and other bay points Sunday. The return trip was started. The rain clouds coming from the south bumped into the brick breeze from the north and were held back, but the stout launch Carrie L. drove straight ahead into the teeth of the wind.

Then Miss Woolwine became seasick. There was nothing to do but continue the trip home, and when Bay Farm Island bridge was sighted Miss Woolwine was in a state of collapse. The auto-ambulance of the Emergency Hospital was summoned to carry the sick girl from the bridge to the Lee home on Regent street, and yesterday Miss Woolwine was under a physician's care. Today she is still rocking and wobbling in the imagined motion of the waves. Miss Woolwine had engaged passage to Los Angeles on the big turbine Yalo, but "never again" will she brave the dangers of the deep. She is going south by rail.

LAUDS PRESIDENT FOR KEEPING WORD TO PEOPLE

Secretary Nagel Makes Vigorous Attack on Referendum and Recall

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 12.—In a speech lauding President Taft's administration as a complete fulfillment of all the Republican platform pledges of 1908 and a strict continuation of the policies inaugurated by President Roosevelt, Secretary Nagel of the Department of Commerce and Labor last night made a vigorous attack on the advocates of such governmental changes as the initiative, referendum and recall.

Secretary Nagel declared that public men were attempting to "confuse the public mind," that they were "busy making promises to which they cannot successfully be held," that the recall of judges "would make trimmers of men" and that men of independence and capacity from accepting positions of trust.

"It was conceivable fifty years ago that as a result of our internal strife there might have been two republics," he said. "It is conceivable today that if some of the suggestions impatiently put forward at this time are to prevail, the question may arise whether or not there shall be one republic. Against such a contingency it behooves every citizen to set his face in absolute disregard of every other consideration, personal or political."

BRINGS NO AID.

The efforts of President Taft to carry out the pledges of the party, he said, had brought no aid from his Republican critics.

"For the last three years," said Secretary Nagel, "during a period of unrelenting struggle to realize and bring into action every pledge that was made in the name of the Republican party, there has been uttered scarcely a word of approval by them of those things accomplished."

"Instead, they have filled the air with nostrums, the acceptance of which they pronounce to be the sole test of the progressive spirit. Instead of adding to what has been promised solemnly in the name of the people, it is proclaimed that the initiative, the referendum and the recall of officials, including judges, and of judicial decisions, shall from now on be the test of progressive Republicanism."

To President Roosevelt, said Secretary Nagel, belonged the credit of arousing the people to the full value of the laws to protect them against monopolies and combinations. Mr. Roosevelt first brought the interstate commerce laws into full effect, he said, and President Taft had devoted himself to carrying out the pledges and policies inaugurated by Mr. Roosevelt and endorsed in the national platform of 1908.

PUNKTOWN FUSION PARTY IN SESSION

Candidates Nominated by the Elks and Contest Promises to Be Exciting.

The Fusion party of Punktown, otherwise a number of the members of Oakland lodge, No. 111, B. P. O. E., held a political meeting last night in the lodge rooms on Fourteenth street, near Broadway. The meeting was one of a number of preliminary affairs to be held previous to the great Punktown fair on March 25, 29 and 30 in the Elks club building.

The fair is the latest entertainment planned by the local lodge, and will represent the activities of a New England village at fair time. Previous to the big celebration, which will be exclusively for Elks and their friends, the Punktown meetings are held, four parties being in the field for township officers.

The Fusionists, who met last night, have chosen the following candidates: For mayor, E. M. Freeman; clerk, Ezra W. Decker; treasurer, Harry S. Anderson; constable, Mrs. K. M. Shanny; justice of the peace, James G. Quinn; coroner, Mrs. Frank Barnett; pound master, John Bonham; town trustees, Theodore Gier, Rev. E. F. Dempsey and Mrs. Byron Rutley.

A. C. Hodges, chairman of the convention, presided at the meeting. George W. Frick, one of the leading Fusionists, made the address of the evening for his party, and other talks were made by Harry S. Anderson, candidate for treasurer, Colonel Theodore Gier, candidate for town trustee, and J. M. Bonham, candidate for pound master.

Musical numbers were also given by Arthur McGill, instrumentalist, and Fred Anderson, James Finney, Fred Wilson and C. L. Hart, vocalists.

The remaining three parties in the political campaign, the Independents, Prohibitionists and Socialists, will hold similar meetings during the coming two weeks.

FEDERALS RELIEVE TORREON, RUMOR

Win Victory, According to the Report From Consul-General Hanna.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Rumors of a federal victory near Toraon, Mexico, reached the State Department here today. The report came from Consul General Hanna at Monterey, who said Toraon had been relieved.

Official dispatches from Southern Mexico to the State Department advised that Jolico, two small bands of rebels, or marauders, are said to be roving about the state. In Guadalupe, the capital, 1000 rebels are reported to be holding down the region. The reports say, however, that they are not considered dangerous.

It is reported that Henry C. Hanna is en route from Toraon. Hanna's communication with that city, however, is still interrupted.

EL PASO, Tex., March 12.—Armed Mexican rebels are reported to have crossed the river into El Paso county yesterday afternoon and taken five horses and a saddle from ranchers near Pecos, Texas.

FIRE HOUSE PLANS ARE ORDERED CHANGED

Council Listens to Plea of the Residents of East Oakland.

HEAD OF IMPROVERS
ADDRESSES OFFICIALS

Motor-Driven Chemical Engine Provided for in the Ordinance.

Redraft of the plans for the proposed Alameda firehouse, to make the building more attractive and serviceable in conformity with the wishes of the residents of East Oakland and the annexed district was promised by the city council this morning in response to a protest from the United Improvement Club of East Oakland. The club objected because the appropriation had been reduced from $13,000, which they declared had been promised, to $5000.

E. Sansone, president of the United Improvement Club east of Lake Merritt, appeared before the council this morning to voice the protest of the club. He said:

"PAID FOR SEWERS."

"The Alameda district paid for its own sewers and when we were asked to aid other district by paying extra taxes, we were told that we would be given a firehouse like that erected in Bimhurst. We provided funds for the building. 'Now you cut down the appropriation. We ask that you fulfill your promise. A wooden house which would have to be renewed in a few years. We ask for a permanent structure.'"

The ordinance was read and the ordinance containing the appropriation and outlined plans and specifications were returned to Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Fred C. Turner and Fire Chief N. A. Ball to have the firehouse redrafted the plans on a more ample plan.

HOW ORDINANCE STANDS.

The ordinance to be redrafted contains as it now stands the following items:

Section 1. There is hereby appropriated out of the Fire Fund of the city of Oakland the sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) to be used for the following purposes:

$5000 for the erection of a fire engine house on lot owned by the city of Oakland at the southwest corner of Alameda avenue and Abbey street;

$5000 for the erection of a fire engine house to be built on lot owned by the city of Oakland at the west side of Montgomery street near John street; and $5000 for the erection of a fire engine house to be built in the vicinity of Colma avenue, Claremont street and Fifty-ninth street.

The following ordinance was given initial passage:

Section 2. There is hereby appropriated out of the Fire Fund of the city of Oakland the sum of five thousand dollars ($5000) for the purchase of a motor driven chemical engine for the use of the fire department of the city of Oakland.

STORM TAKES TRIP UP NORTH

But It Came Back to California, Says Weather Man McAdie.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—According to McAdie, the weather man, the south brewed one of the nicest storms of the season yesterday, and during the night the gods controlling such things carried it up to Washington, turned it around and brought it back to northern California, and then, and not until then, loosened the rain clouds gathered on the way.

Today the dividing line of the Tehachap is clearly marked. Above it farmers rejoice in a one-inch rainfall. The lands south—although the storm really originated there—haven't a drop.

At 1 o'clock this morning the one-inch mark was passed and McAdie says that before the storm is over there will be easily a two-inch rainfall—the best of the season. Yesterday the rainfall for the season was only 3.7 inches. Today at noon the one-inch mark had been passed, and by noon tomorrow, it seems, we will have had at least a total of 11 inches for the season.

The chances are better every day for northern California to get her average total of 23 inches for the season, and to get it right at the time it will do most good.

The wind which bumped the commuters about the ferries early this morning was just a mild southwesterly breeze. It is merely the segment of a circular eddy which is sweeping over the coast and valleys of northern California, leaving the south and Oregon and Washington high, sunny and dry.

RAIN AT FRESNO

FRESNO, March 12.—Beginning early this morning a steady rain is still continuing this afternoon. At the noon hour over two-thirds of an inch had fallen. Heavy rains are forecast for tonight. At Crane Valley, in the Sierras, the snow had reached a depth of 6 feet, and it is still snowing heavily. This insures a plentiful supply of irrigation water.

DR. SUZZALLO SPEAKS AT FRESNO INSTITUTE

FRESNO, March 12.—Five hundred teachers from all parts of the county are in attendance at the county institute that opened today. Among those who made addresses was Dr. Henry Suzzallo of Columbia University. Five hundred additional teachers will be present at the opening tomorrow of the annual session of the Central California Teachers' Association, representing all the interior counties.

J. O. DAVIS ACTS AS HIS OWN ATTORNEY

Attorney J. O. Davis of Berkeley continues to be the feature in the trial of his suit against T. L. Taylor at the First National Bank for $50,000 damages. He was on the witness stand testifying to cross-examination this morning and took occasion several times to object to the queries put to him by his own attorney. The trial will probably last for another week.

FIRST OF FISHING SCHOONER FLEET LEAVES

Salmon Tender Alitak Will Be Made Ready for Trip to the North.

BANNER SEASON LOOKED FOR BY FISHERMEN

U. C. College of Commerce Club Plans to Take on Bay.

Steaming from her berth alongside the Alaska Packers' Association's Alameda warehouse, the salmon tender Alitak of the Alaska Packers' fishing fleet left the inner harbor this morning for the San Francisco side. The Alitak is the first packer of the steam schooner class to leave the port this season.

She will run over to the San Francisco wharves of the company where she will be fueled, provided with provisions and otherwise fitted out for the long trip to the northern fisheries. The Alitak is the first of the fleet of packers to leave this port for the season. The ship Star of Alaska, having left several days ago for San Francisco to be put in readiness for the fishing season.

According to present plans the Alitak will act as a sort of convoy to the Alaska fleet, being reported that the vessels will sail for the north together. No more has as yet been made by vessels belonging to the North Alaska Salmon Co., which fleet is also anchored in the mud off Embarcadero. The vessels in this fleet are, however, being overhauled and it is thought they will soon put out for the northern fisheries.

Present indications point to a banner season among the salmon packers as the fleets which usually make the run to the north will be considerably enlarged. According to reports from vessels along the coast several new companies are being formed to go north for the salmon.

Arriving last night 90 hours from Port Angeles was the power schooner Archer. The Archer which was formerly a barkentine is in charge of Captain Parker who reports a rough voyage. According to the skipper the vessel was forced to walk through several heavy winds before making port. The water was calm, however, and came into port undamaged.

The Archer upon her arrival ran up the stream into the inner harbor and tied up at the Sunset Lumber company wharf where she is discharging 1,500,000 shingles. Besides her single cargo the vessel carries a large crew of men, and a number of which will be discharged on this side and the remainder on the San Francisco side.

In order to get an insight as to the maritime business of the local harbor the College of Commerce club of the University of California have sent a communication through Secretary E. C. Mohrhardt to the State Board of Harbor Commissioners. In the communication the club asks of the commission to allow the use of many government tugboats to carry the entire club membership. The club asks that April 14 be designated as the day upon which the cruise shall take place.

This cruise has been an annual occurrence for the past few years, although last year the university organization did not ask for the favor. The club, however, has taken the matter up and have planned to send a large number of students. The matter of giving the students the cruise will be taken up by the board at its next meeting.

FERRY BOAT ON WAYS

Going on the ways of the Moore & Scott yard this morning was the Santa Fe ferry boat San Pablo. She will be cleaned and painted. The San Pablo operates on the Richmond run and during her stay on the ways her place is being taken by a barge which is towed about by a tug. According to a local commuter who passed over the bay on the barge the accommodations are anything but comfortable.

Pacific Coast Steamship Company's steamer Unatilla steamed from her berth at Long wharf yesterday afternoon. The big vessel went to the San Francisco side, where she picked up a long list of passengers and a small amount of freight and this morning she steamed for Puget Sound and Victoria. She is in charge of Captain Scoby.

The yacht Idler is at the William Cryer shipyard having an auxiliary engine put in her, making her power launch. The Idler has for some time past been a familiar craft on the local front, but because of her slow ability to walk over water her owner is having her remodeled into a power boat. She will be comfortably fitted out and accommodations for sleeping will be made, it being the intention of Shaw to use her as a pleasure cruiser.

After remaining idle for the past six or eight months the steam schooner Comilla River steamed from port this morning. The vessel will be put on the lumber trade, which was her run before her laying up in the mud last year. The vessel, although idle for such a long time, was able to get out under her own steam and with but a little overhauling will be ready to go to sea.

Coming in under tow of the Redstack Company's tug Sea Fox and Sea Prince was the big Hnd, Ralph C. schooner Invincible. The Invincible was moved from Mission bay and was put on the mudflats off East Oakland.

The steam schooner Whitesboro is at the Sunset Lumber Company's wharf discharging 150,000 feet of lumber.

The tug Queen is at the William Cryer shipyard receiving an overhauling.

ESTABLISHES NEW BOWLING RECORD

Louis Veilstetch Drops 280 Pins in Single Game at Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 12.—A world's record for tournament competition was established in the American Bowling Congress tournament this afternoon when Louis Veilstetch of Kansas City dropped 280 pins for a single game while competing in the doubles. He replaced the former A. B. C. record, held jointly by Harry Muzey of St. Paul and William Miner of Chicago by 28 pins.

Veilstetch failed to strike only in the second frame. He was paired with "Kid" Nichols, the former Boston National League pitcher. Nicholas struck and Glen Fisher of Chicago scored high game in the doubles today, getting 191 pins, which put them in second place. Veilstetch and Nichols scored 117.

ROOSEVELT IS OUT WITH EXPLANATION

Gives Reason for His Change of Front on the Direct Primary Law.

MINNEAPOLIS, L. I., March 12.—Colonel Roosevelt gave out a statement today replying to one issued by the Republican state committee last night saying that he was inconsistent in assailing the direct primary law in this state, inasmuch as he had previously supported it.

"I stood most strongly for the bill that Governor Hughes approved," said the Colonel; "the best bill possible to obtain at that time. The present law is not only a much worse law than the bill proposed by Governor Hughes, but so much worse that a great many good men have told me that it would have been better to have had no law at all."

He added that an effort was being made to confuse the public as regards the law proposed by Hughes and the one enacted.

BILLS MAY CURB PATENT OWNERS

Will Prevent Impositions on the Users of Protected Devices.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Bills to curb the monopolizing power of patentees over unpatented articles used in operation of patented machines began to show life today in Congress. This is in response to the appeal of Chief Justice White of the Supreme court for Congress to change the law, which the court found yesterday gave patentees practically unrestricted privileges regarding the manner in which their patents should be used.

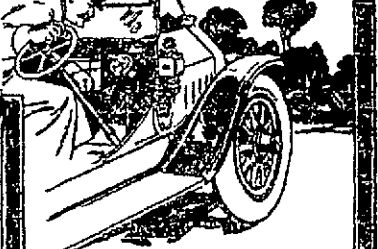

E. B. Moore, commissioner of patents, has prepared a bill to amend the laws that patentees may not impose conditions upon purchasers of their patented articles.

Senator Gore may reintroduce a bill presented to Congress last year restricting license restrictions in the sale of patents.

FOSS ASKS FOR NEW DISTRICT

Separate Supervisory Division Urged by Him; Grand Jury System.

BERKELEY, March 12.—At the monthly meeting of the City Club last evening Supervisor Fred W. Foss made a plea for a separate supervisory district for Berkeley. He declared that, with the exception of the first supervisory district in the county was so arranged that it was controlled within the city limits of Oakland. Fred W. Seaby spoke of the various crudities in the grand jury system. Regarding the tax association President Mark L. Reque said:

"Before taking steps toward public ownership, it is absolutely necessary to increase the efficiency of government, by building up a class of able men trained for that purpose. No county in the state has reached such a plane. To prepare them will take a long time, and require a large number of citizens to take an interest. In England the honor of public service is eagerly sought, and the efforts of the best citizens. Public ownership can be brought about in this country, a similar condition must be brought about. It is the purpose of the Tax Association to bridge over the interval before this can be accomplished."

In investigating existing conditions, they find the county books so kept that you can't get answers to a single question bearing on efficiency. There is no showing of unit cost. Even the reports of balances on hand are misleading, because there is no showing of liabilities already incurred. The association will endeavor to bring about a standardized system of accounts, so that activities in one county can be compared with those elsewhere."

The club decided at once to organize general of its scheduled sub-committees and proceed with their work, as follows: Committees on public highways and streets, garbage and refuse disposal, political education, social centers and telephones. The program announced for each committee follows:

What are the existing conditions? What improved methods obtain successfully in other communities? What is the most advanced thought upon the subject?

What are the conclusions as to the practical ideal for Berkeley?

What comprehensive plan should be followed to secure this ideal?

What immediate emergencies are we now facing?

What practical steps can now be taken? How shall the club go about taking these steps?

CONVICTED MURDERER IN VERSE-WRITING MOOD

Rogers Again Drops Into Parody; Death Penalty Hangs Over Head

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—John S. Rogers, convicted murderer of Benjamin Goodman, who must pay the death penalty for his offense, was cheerful and gay as he sat in his cell at the County Jail, the night following his conviction. He at least hoped for life term as worst punishment. He became poetical over his conviction and wrote the following parody on "When the Sunset Turns the Ocean's Blue to Gold."

When walking time is over
And the jailer locks our door,
Then we know our work is done for the day;
And our thoughts begin to roam
Of the sweethearts all alone,
As we lay down on our mattress full of joy.

And we dream of the outside,
And once again we look with pride
To the day that we'll be free again once more.
But we will wait up with a start,
With a sad and broken heart,
For we are back in jail behind the iron door.

CHORUS.
Now the dinner it is coming,
And the prisoners they are humming,
As they stand with plate in hand day after day.
For some eat a hearty meal while others never will,
For they're doomed to spend their life across the bay.

There is many a soul in here,
Where at home they need his cheer,
When a sweetheart waits for him each day.
But perhaps she waits in vain,
For he may never return again;
He may be sent up for life across the bay.

But we're all in here tonight,
All our chances are in the night,
So cheer up, boys, be happy and be gay,
And do the best you can.
And remember that you are still a man,
Although up for life you're sent across the bay.

Rogers will be sentenced on Saturday by Superior Judge Willis. His counsel announced that they will appeal to the Supreme Court.

GETS 150 REPLIES FROM TRIBUNE AD

Sixteen-Line "Classified" Ad. Works Wonders; Employment Plan.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: A few days ago I placed a sixteen-line ad in THE TRIBUNE classified and received over one hundred and fifty replies by phone and personal application, and secured two men who measured up to requirement. I demanded, namely, that they did not drink, smoke, gamble and could go out and make good. I start them in Monday morning trying out. Now then, I claim first, that the opportunity to work should first be offered and second to be accepted and third to make good.

Your ad bore in Oakland and at Sacramento, I offered the suggestion that good roads be built all over this state. Money to be raised by bonds being issued by the state or by county issues, and with that money get busy and build the roads. The following suggestions were then offered, namely: To all men married or single, who held applications for employment, when the state or county was able to perform his duty and earn his wages, that the minimum be $2.50 a day, and from that up according to the labor done.

Where men were found who could work but would not, that they be first offered the chance and if they did not accept, then charge them before the miting magistrates, on justice, with a sentence of peace of that county minimum to ninety days, thirty days minimum to ninety days maximum and force them to work on these roads.

Allowing married men $1.50 a day which amount will be paid to their families, then to receive their board and families. To all single men $1.00 per day was to be paid. At the end of their term they could go on a fund with which they could go on and about their business or get a foothold and thereby find other employment, or continue at the road work if they so desired. The question of a living is a vital issue at the road work if they so desired. The question of a living is a vital issue at the road work if they so desired. The question of a living is a vital issue at the road work if they so desired.

Let us all quit being so extremely selfish and consider the other fellow a little and get busy keeping others and ourselves doing something. And a lot of this dissatisfaction and unrest will be stopped by really doing something.

Tours for activity and getting busy. Respectfully, challenge which he has carried since his arrest. Rogers received a jury verdict of murder in the first degree at 11 o'clock last night for the killing of Benjamin Goodman on November 18.

Rogers' stoicism aroused fear in Sheriff Eggers that he might commit suicide and he asked Captain of Detectives Ryan to place a guard in his cell. Ryan declined and Eggers deputized one of his own men to stand guard over Rogers' cell throughout the night.

Six hours after the arraignment of the jury it came to a unanimous vote that Rogers should die on the gallows for crushing the skull of Goodman, the jewelry salesman, whom he assaulted and robbed of gems and precious metal to the value of $5000, and then buried under junk sacks and debris in the basement of the San Francisco Produce Company at 510 Front street.

At an hour before midnight word was sent from the juryroom that a verdict had been reached. Rogers' hopes of a disagreement were blasted. The jury filed into the box and Foreman Thomas B. Hildebrand arose.

"What is your verdict, gentlemen?" asked Judge Willis.
"Guilty of murder in the first degree," Rogers' demeanor had not altered. Willis' speech was broken by a gasp. Rogers' face showed slight paleness. He leaned toward his attorney and in even tones remarked:
"They didn't prove anything against me."

"No, they didn't, and we're not through with this case yet," returned his attorney, W. A. Cardwell, who made no motion for a new trial but announced that it will be made later, or an appeal taken to a higher court.

TAKEN TO CELL.
Rogers was led away for the night to a cell in the city jail. No trace of emotion was shown by the convicted slayer. His only relative in the court when the death verdict was given was his brother. The father and sister of the slain man were present.

The first ballot was eight to four for first degree murder. Half a dozen succeeding ballots were taken before the verdict was made unanimous. Judge Willis said the jury took about an hour when it became apparent that an immediate decision could not be made.

The case against Rogers was placed in the hands of the jury shortly before 5 o'clock.

The body of Benjamin Goodman was found in the gutter, covered with grape skins, on the morning of November 20. There were bloodstains in the basement of the San Francisco Produce Company, close at hand, which indicated that he had been killed there.

Rogers worked for the San Francisco Produce Company. He, with two other young men, was taken into custody. Goodman's skull had been crushed from the blows of a small hatchet. Such a hatchet was used by Rogers. Goodman had had jewelry worth $5000 on his person. Tags from some of these were found in the basement, also a couple of watches which were identified as part of Goodman's property.

A portion of Goodman's jewelry was found in a safe deposit box belonging to Rogers. Rogers' companion, Hazel Smith, confessed that she knew that Rogers had some jewelry.

The last time Goodman was seen alive he was talking to a tall blond man. Goodman was a salesman for the Brilliant Jewelry Company. He was in the habit of carrying diamonds on his person.

CHANGES MADE IN R. R. DIRECTORATE

Henry I. Miller and B. F. Edwards Displaced on Board.

ST. LOUIS, March 12.—Henry I. Miller of New York and B. F. Edwards of St. Louis were succeeded by Jacob H. Metcalfe and Jay Gould as directors of the Missouri Railway Company at the annual meeting of the stockholders today.

Gossip in railroad circles is to the effect that Miller and President Bush clashed over certain matters concerning the administration. Other directors were re-elected. Both Miller and Metcalfe represent Speyer and Company, bankers.

Howard Gould replaced A. H. Caley as director of the St. Louis and Iron Mountain and Southern Railway Company. Caley will retain his title as secretary and treasurer of the two Gould roads.

Long Search Results in Recovery After Danish Government Expends Much.

ALVESTON, March 12.—Hella Charlotte Jorgensen, 32 years old, daughter of the late Augustus J. Jorgensen, former Danish consul at Rome and cousin of the king of Denmark, has been found after six years' search, in which the Danish government expended a fortune and secret agents scoured Mexico, the United States and Italy. The child was born in Rome while her parents were residing there.

Following the unexpected death of Mr. and Mrs. Jorgensen in Mexico, the child was placed in care of a Danish woman, pending negotiations for her removal to relatives in Denmark. An impostor, purporting to be the brother of Jorgensen and claiming to be the child's father, had been advised to "get rid of" the child by communication with the Danish government, offering to release Hella Charlotte upon payment of $150,000.

This resulted in the institution of a search, which lasted six years. The finding of the girl five months ago was made by accident, and all this time has been consumed in tracing her identity, according to the procedure of Denmark where one of royal blood is concerned.

A juvenile society in Dallas, Texas, was called upon to investigate a case of neglect, and took the little one to one of the homes of the society. The child told her name and said that she had relatives in Denmark. A communication to that country gave the first clew of the whereabouts of the girl for whom a heavy reward was offered. The abduction has never been located, but the child believes her life is saved. She has suffered much at the hands of strangers.

"Get Rid of 'Em"

NEW YORK, March 12.—Ellenbeth Freeman, one of the suffragette leaders of London, speaking in the Metropolitan Temple tonight before one of the biggest women's suffrage meetings ever held here, said that she and others, mainly in England, had been advised to "get rid of" Premier Asquith, Chancellor David Lloyd George and Winston Churchill, now the first Lord of the Admiralty.

Lady said she explained that the advice to "get rid of" these members of the Cabinet meant "to blow their heads off."

"The man who gave us that advice," said Mrs. Freeman, "was an American radical. Of course, he can't give his name. However, we don't intend to follow that advice."

"Queen" to Wed

SAN JOSE, March 12.—Earl Menker, a Stanford man, obtained a license to-day to marry Miss Anne Manhire, who reigned as Queen Anne during the greatest celebration ever held in this county—St. Patrick's day.

The wedding is to take place tomorrow evening at the Centella Methodist Episcopal church, and is the result of a romance which began several years ago when both Miss Manhire and Menker were students at the San Jose High School.

The schools of San Jose were featured in the Rose Carnival and Miss Manhire ruled as the most popular student among the several hundred young ladies attending the San Jose Normal at that time.

Woman to Judge

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo., March 12.—Several men charged with bootlegging in Eagle county have an added anxiety as to the outcome of their case because they will be tried before a woman judge, and the fact will rest with a jury composed partly of women.

Mrs. J. M. Tague, the only woman judge in Colorado, will preside in the county court of Eagle county, where the bootlegging cases will be tried. Nearly half of the jurors summoned for the present term of court, which began today, are women.

How to Have the Best Cough Syrup and Save 25¢ by Making It at Home.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. If you take one pint of granulated sugar, add 1/2 pint of warm water and stir about 2 minutes, you have as good syrup as money can buy.

If you will then put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have as much cough syrup as you could buy ready made for $2.50. It is a perfect remedy.

And you will find it the best cough syrup you ever used—even in whooping cough. You can feel it take hold—usually stops the most severe cough in 24 hours. It is just laxative enough, has a good tonic effect, and taste is pleasant. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

It is a splendid remedy, too, for whooping cough, croup, hoarseness, asthma, chest pains, etc.

Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in quinine and all the healing plant elements. No other preparation will work in this formula.

This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used and prized in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will give it for you. Do not send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

OAKLAND WOMEN PRAISED FOR THEIR BEAUTY

ABLE CRITIC COMPARES QUALITIES POSSESSED BY MEMBERS OF SOCIETY OF TWO COAST CITIES

Names of Well-Known Smart Set Leaders Are Proposed by Enthusiastic Friends

A WOMAN of our smart set who has lived many years in New York and Washington contributes the following able comparison between the beautiful women of Oakland and of New York.

Contributed

"Beauty in a woman must rest mainly in expression. You may take a face where each feature is perfect, as in a composite picture, and not find it pleasing. Good manners, high breeding, help largely in these days to that pleasing appearance a beautiful woman must create. Oakland women are very broad-minded and they are not snobs. That gives them the advantage over the New York women of the smart set, who are narrow-minded for the most part, and who are snobs. It is quite true they look down upon everybody not from their New York. California is located somewhere on their map, usually in the Middle West.

"Our women are far prettier than the New Yorkers. We have the complexion, the wonderful coloring, which are such large attributes to beauty. But the New York women are ahead of us in style. They are far more stylish. In the matter of style the New York women lead the world. They get the styles ahead of us, and we achieve them finally; they lead us in style, but we lead in beauty, because of the coloring our climate gives us and because of the broad-mindedness that is our inheritance.

"A woman cannot be beautiful if she is a snob. She cannot have the broad-mindedness necessary, to the lovely expression a beautiful woman should possess.

"The New Yorkers adore position, and they will kneel before royalty and bow before the English aristocracy on any occasion.

"The Californian is quite as apt to laugh at the mannerisms of an English lord as she is to respect his position. She has a certain independence that makes her interesting; she may not have a superlative polish that comes from long ancestry, or from much travel abroad, but she has a certain freshness that is refreshing, and she looks straight out upon the world with a consciousness of her own dignity that goes far towards making her a beautiful woman.

Wonderful Coloring

"Many of our women have wonderful coloring; they have much self-respect; they have an abounding sense of humor; they are broad-minded, and they are generous. Then when Fate gives them fairly good features, they are beautiful.

"Really nice people are the same wherever you find them, but there are certain characteristics of women in America which are true. New York women have style; California women have beauty—and some of its finest types are to be found in the well-known women of our Oakland smart set.

"If Paris were again to throw his famous apple to decide a beauty contest, it would probably be caught by some well-known young matron of the Oakland smart set."

Rebecca of Vanity Fair

Dear TRIBUNE: How very nice of you to change things for us in Vanity Fair! In this same Vanity Fair we have been long used to holding up the mirror to reflect the faults of our friends. How good of you to place a mirror in our hands to reflect their virtues. Over your mirror you might have written:

"Be to their faults a little blind; Be to their virtues very kind."

It is an honor, isn't it, to be reflected in that mirror, if only for a fleeting moment, for you have a glimpse of yourself in the heart of a friend.

Just between ourselves, in the strictest confidence, my dear TRIBUNE, there have been a good many little "hammers" knocking away lately in Vanity Fair.

It would do any harm to muffle them for a while and to look into that mirror you are holding up for everybody.

Why didn't you name it for Lewis Carroll's story, "Through the Looking Glass?"

REBECCA OF VANITY FAIR.

At the Mardi Gras

Dear Beauty Committee: Do you remember the "White Rabbit" of "Alice in Wonderland"? Let me tell you a story about it:

It was that same fascinating little Rabbit that meekly took its way over to the Mardi Gras ball. It was a very fetching little Rabbit, with great white ears and lovely white fur. But judge of its amazement when it reached the ball and saw all the wonderful people of the "Arabian Nights," and everyone knows the "Arabian Nights" is much more splendid than "Alice in Wonderland."

There was Jennie Crocker as Gull-nare, that wonderful sea maiden, all in green, with magnificent trousseau and jewels in oodles and stacks; and there was Mrs. Templeton Crocker, in all the pride of fine raiment—"proud of Puss"—and ablaze with all those Crocker-Irwin gems—diamonds, rubies, and pearls—diamonds, rubies, and pearls.

The whole Arabian Nights let loose trooped to the Mardi Gras ball, and the little White Rabbit grew pale and was dazzled, because she was only from a child's book, "Alice in Wonderland."

Then a wonderful thing happened to the little White Rabbit. She heard her name called out and she knew she had beaten all the hostile band on its own ground, and swiftly she sped home with the beautiful trophy. At the big ball they called her the "Little White Rabbit," and in her own city we know her as Mrs. George McNear Jr.

And now, don't you think that for all that bravery and prowess she ought to have a place among your Ten Beautiful Women? A. B.

Mrs. Frank C. Havens

Dear Editor: You have quoted masterpieces of art as standards of measurement, and though they are medieval, we have not improved upon them. The Venus of Milo is still our standard, and if we would copy her in the matter of that large waist line it would be to our definite advantage.

The Sistine Madonna at Dresden is one of the seven most beautiful pictures in the world, and that wide space, between the eyes of the Madonna indicated that Raphael regarded intellect as a characteristic of woman's beauty. It is because of the standard of the masterpiece that Mrs. Frank C. Havens' name is proposed for the list of ten, for she perfectly resembles the "Mona Lisa." The stolen treasure of the Louvre. That beauty is most unique, most original, which defies analysis, and the "Mona Lisa" long looked out upon the world with a beauty individual and unique. Mrs. Havens greatly resembles the "Mona Lisa," and the likeness is especially apparent in the portrait recently painted of Mrs. Havens by Mr. Richard Partington. C. H.

Mrs. Oscar F. Long

EDITOR TRIBUNE: Among the beautiful young matrons of Oakland must be mentioned Mrs. Oscar F. Long, who was formerly Miss Amy Regua. She has the fine lines that mark distinction and the regular features that realize the ideal of beauty.

Mrs. Long is one of the most accomplished women of the smart set, being a fine pianist, an excellent musical composer and she speaks French perfectly. She is very cultured, and intellectual ability lends a charm to a face with most pleasing lines.

Mrs. Wm. G. Henshaw

To the Editor: No list of beautiful women in Oakland would be complete without the name of Mrs. William G. Henshaw. Her beauty is of the blonde type, with exceedingly fine coloring. But it is her expression of optimism that is most charming. She is always radiant, always smiling, always rising above petty conditions and reflecting happiness. She possesses the features that mean beauty, but her coloring, her optimism, as she looks smiling out upon life, lend a rare charm to a perfect picture. In Paris they call Mrs. Henshaw "La Belle Americaine," and they have chosen a name that truly describes her. B. A.

Mrs. Prentiss Selby

EDITOR TRIBUNE: The thanks of the community are due Mrs. Regua for her able analysis of a beautiful woman. And along her lines, I would like to present the name of Mrs. Prentiss Selby as one representing a most noble type of womanhood—dignified, thoughtful, well-bred. Mrs.

Selby represents fine ideals, and she ought to have an assured place in any list of beautiful women. MRS. B. A. N.

Down Peacock Lane

Dear Beauty Ladies: So, after all, it's the day of the grandmother! I remember my grandmother, who used to look at me over the top of her spectacles when I stood before her, gowned for my afternoon walk. She saw the perky bows on my shoes, the big bow on my hat, and my stunning parasol, and then she used to say: "Don't go faring down Peacock Lane, my dear!"

And now it's the grandmothers that are faring down Peacock Lane, and mighty good style they are—the latest—and what do you know about that?

So if you don't stand for a grandmother or two on that list you won't be popular in "Peacock Lane," nor in any other place where the smart set most do congregate.

A Tale of Woe

A wail has gone up from the blondes, so, dear committee, pray listen to the tale of woe that the dainty, demure, petite little women may offer. California is the land of stunning women; you may go to any smart function and the words of a recent song keep saying themselves over and over again to you:

"Oh, you great, big, beautiful doll!"

These stunning women wear the biggest kind of hats, with great plumes, and their presence is so all-pervading that they absorb all the glory that properly belongs to the petite woman who is really beautiful. So won't you be just as well as generous in making a place of the petite type of womanhood on your list of ten? For though petite in stature, we may be large of heart, great in intellect, and we may have far more than our rightful share of good looks. And so will you make room for at least one of the following names on your faithful list:

Mrs. Charles Leonard Smith, Miss Charlotte Lohse, Miss Elsie Emerson, Miss Lole Holland, Mrs. Henry Rosenfeld, Mrs. Montell Taylor, Miss Blina Moseley, Miss Rose Kales, Miss Letty Barry and Miss Louise Fents.

The Older Women

It marks our advance in standards when the age line in beauty can be so indefinitely extended. In honor of this new thought, in this new day, three beautiful and very stunning women may be prominently mentioned.

Mrs. C. C. Clay, Mrs. William Clift and Mrs. E. B. Braden.

Mrs. Wickham Havens

To the Beauty Committee: Don't you think a general opinion always counts for much in deciding any question? For there is never but one opinion in regard to Mrs. Wickham Havens' beauty. At the large receptions where our smart set is most in evidence, women are sure to remark how very beautiful Mrs. Havens is—a beauty that deepens with the passing months.

She has a type of beauty that is both strong and striking, sweetness lurks in the lines of her face and there is an unassuming modesty that is charming. There are many friends who know that a kindness of heart is joined to a strength of character and who wish that in any list of truly beautiful women might be written the name of Mrs. Wickham Havens. MISS B.

Mrs. Wm. T. White

Editor Beauty Committee: Among the very stunning types of beauty among the younger matrons may be mentioned that of Mrs. William Thornton White, who was formerly Katherine Brown.

Mrs. White is a young matron who has all the characteristics of a social leader, and she is very stunning, with beauty of a decided order.

Mrs. White, as queen of the carnival at Idora Park, was a superb study and was greatly admired. B. A. C.

Among the Brunettes

Are there really more brunettes than blondes in our smart set? It would seem so, for the list of good-looking brunettes is a long one, and you might make up a famous list of ten from the following well-known members of our local smart set:

Miss Elsie Emerson, Mrs. Stanley Moore, Mrs. Minor Goodall, Miss Mona Crellin, Mrs. Churchill Taylor, Miss Florence Henshaw, Mrs. Frank L. Brown, Mrs. J. P. Dunn, Mrs. Philip Clay, Mrs. Willard Williamson, Mrs. John Overbury, Mrs. Charles E. Parrish, Mrs. Joseph Matthews, Mrs. Richard Frangton, Mrs. George de Gollie, Mrs. Harry East Miller, Mrs. Sam Bell Wakefield, the Misses Engelhardt, Mrs. Tyler Henshaw, Mrs. George Hammer, Miss Berenice MacDonald, Mrs. Duncan McDuffie, Mrs. Joseph Kelly, Miss Evelyn Hussey, Miss Jean Clift, Mrs. Frank B. Ogden, Miss Marguerite Ogden, Mrs. Beach Soule and Miss Bessie McNear.

San Francisco Woman Would Protect Canary From Suffering.

Son and Landlady Stumble Over Body, With Empty Vial Nearby.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—After strangling her pet canary and purchasing some red roses which she placed beside the cage, Mrs. Violet Broderick committed suicide this morning by swallowing carbolic acid. A note left in the bird cage says, "So the little fellow shall never suffer through me."

Mrs. Broderick had been ill for some time and was under the care of two physicians. She was up and around this morning, but was found dead at 9:30 o'clock in her apartment at the Earl House, 140 Turk street, with an empty poison vial near her.

MAD DOG BITES 3 BEFORE CAUGHT

Men Are Injured While Trying to Save Women and Children From Harm.

Canine Lassooed After Police Fail to Hit Him With Bullets.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—A mad dog which threatened a crowd of women and children on the streets of the Potrero district last evening, was responsible for injuries to three persons who were bitten before the canine was captured with a lasso in the hands of a vaquero.

The injured are Christopher De Boun of 1835 Sixteenth avenue, treated by Dr. Kinlaw, Fourteenth and Railroad avenue; Louis Staggala, 1341 Fifth avenue, treated at the Potrero hospital; Joseph Barry, letter carrier, 1832 Eighth avenue, treated at a drug store.

All of the injured were bitten on the legs and hands by the animal when they endeavored to prevent him from hurting the children who were on Railroad avenue near Eleventh avenue. The dog ran down Railroad avenue like a whirlwind, stopped at the sight of the crowd and began barking furiously and snapping at the legs of pedestrians.

POLICE NOTIFIED.

The police were notified and Sergeant Reavis and Patrolman Regallo hurried to the scene. Before they got there the animal had already found the three victims and was started in another direction. Most of those on the street sought the protection of stores and houses and the canine. In this they were unsuccessful and several shots fired at him, went wild of the mark. At length a vaquero was pressed into service on Fourteenth avenue and he threw his lasso over the animal's head. The dog was taken to the police stables and the board of health notified.

BANQUETERS HEAR OF FEAT OF LOWERING AUTO RECORD

The happy gathering at the Warren victory banquet last night. In the center is seen R. D. Maxwell, offering a toast to greater success for Messrs. K n a u s s (to Maxwell's right), and Vesper (to the left of Maxwell), the local Warren representatives.

(By J. A. HOULIHAN.)

The last page in the history of the victorious run of the Warren non-motor-car was completed last night when the officials of the run, the drivers, observers, newspaper men and several invited guests sat down around the festal board as guests of R. D. Maxwell, representative of the Warren Motor Car Co.

As Maxwell himself tells the story, he is some delighted to know that the automobile he is most interested in is the honor of enviable honors, and he was anxious to show in some manner his appreciation for the various participants and workers in the success of the contest.

All told, there were twenty-two seated at the banquet table. Following the feast there were impromptu speeches.

Maxwell was first on the list. His remarks dealt with the appreciative feeling of both himself and the Warren Motor Car Co. for the sportsmanship and grit displayed by both Mr. Knauss and Mr. Vesper.

"Their victory was a well deserved one," he stated, "was questioned by no one and is likely to remain unbroken for years to come."

WALKER SPEAKS.

On behalf of the American Automobile Association, E. J. Walker, Pacific Coast representative, spoke of his own personal interest in the long grind, of his ardent hopes for the success of it and the fair and honest attitude of the Matheson Sales Company officials at all times during the conduct of the run.

Speaking for both himself and Mr. Vesper, Mr. Knauss delivered a short but well pointed talk, in which he thanked the drivers and observers for their continued interest and labors throughout the seven weeks' time the car was running.

Other brief but interesting remarks were made by Toastmaster R. D. Maxwell, E. J. Walker, R. L. L'Hommedieu, W. H. E. Fowler, B. J. Ensign and W. S. Bacon.

The following were present: R. D. Maxwell, E. J. Walker, R. L. L'Hommedieu, E. W. Knauss, George Vesper, W. G. Dandy, R. C. Summer, Jeff W. Davis, L. G. Reno, H. A. Brown, E. Rogers, Roy Cardinal, E. URNS ON GAS IN BEDROOM

Marx Redinger Found Unconscious With Jets Turned on; "Ready to Die."

FRUITVALE, March 12.—Saying to his friends that he did not care how soon he died because he had made his will, disposing of his worldly properties as he wished, Marx Redinger of Thirty-sixth avenue, near Fourteenth street, went home last night and turned on the gas in his bedroom.

He was found this morning in an unconscious condition from the effects of the deadly fumes. All that saved the man's life was that two of the windows were open, allowing some of the gas to escape. He was found by William Viethauer of Fruitvale avenue and East Thirteenth street, who went to Redinger's home, feeling uneasy over his friends having told him last night that he was ready to die. A doctor was called to give Redinger first aid and he was soon pronounced out of danger.

MAKE MERRY IN SPITE OF SUIT

Host and Hostess at Entertainment Are Parties to Action for Divorce.

ALAMEDA, March 12.—Although Mrs. Hilda Boehmer, of this city, yesterday filed suit for a divorce, she and her husband last night were host and hostess at a social affair at their home at the corner of Valdez street and Park avenue.

The couple seemed extremely friendly and were gracious to their friends, who were somewhat astonished later on hearing that divorce proceedings had been started a few hours before the party.

Mrs. Boehmer refused to make any statement regarding the divorce action. She is well known in Alameda society, and has often entertained at elaborate affairs.

Fred C. Boehmer, her husband, is the son of the late Fritz Boehmer, a former city councilman of Alameda. He is a bay and river pilot.

Judge Elmer E. Johnson, attorney for the wife, states that the trouble is of long standing and that Mrs. Boehmer consulted him several times regarding a divorce. He refused to enter into details.

The couple have a daughter, Gladys Boehmer, an Alameda high school girl, who is captain of the Lincoln Park basketball team. The daughter was present at the party last night.

SEEK WITHDRAWAL FROM PETITIONS

Friends of Berkeley Officials on Trail of the Recall Proponents.

BERKELEY, March 12.—Friends of Councilman John A. Wilson and School Directors Herman L. Stern and Mrs. Elinor Carlisle took the field this morning in an effort to secure withdrawals of names from the petitions asking an election for the recall of the three officials.

The question submitted by City Clerk Seaborn to City Attorney Staats, as to whether the petitions were public property, was affirmatively answered by the attorney, and Seaborn immediately permitted the petitions to be viewed.

As each petition contains about 140 names, more than the number required by the charter, it will be necessary for those assailed therein to secure at least that many withdrawals to invalidate the recall movement. At recall headquarters it is confidently stated that nowhere near that number will go back on their signatures, and that the council will find it necessary to call the election. Friends of the officials claim, on the other hand, that they will be able to scratch more than 140 from each petition and so save the day for their principals.

The petition asking Superintendent Frank F. Bunker to resign in an effort to stave off the recall election was not presented to him today, as had been promised, though its proponents declare they have over 600 signatures already submitted. Superintendent Bunker is not expected to accept the hint.

It was pointed out today that, even if this latter petition were to carry weight and the superintendent were to resign, the recall election movement has progressed too far to be stopped. The petitions are in the hands of the city clerk and must be presented by him to the council, upon which it is mandatory, if they are found sufficient, to call the election.

REPEAT PLAY FOR BENEFIT OF NURSERY

MRS. ALFRED BAILEY.

BERKELEY, March 12.—Played last night before an appreciative audience of members of the Town and Gown Club at the club house, "The Old Curiosity Shop" will be repeated this evening at the same place for the benefit of the Berkeley Day Nursery.

Already there is a large sale of tickets and it is expected the hall will be well filled for tonight's performance. The proceeds of the production will be used to build a home for the nursery on its lot at Seventh and Addison streets.

The arrangement of the Dickens novel for the production was made by Miss Dorothy Deakin and its participants are all well known in Berkeley society. James Plisk was the Grandfather Trent, and Mrs. George M. Mott, Jr. made a dainty Little Nell. Dr. Alfred Bailey was enthusiastically received in the difficult role of Dick Swiveller, while Mrs. Bailey was the Marchioness to the life. Others in the cast who were frequently applauded, were the following: "Mr. Garland," Charles Brock; "Kit Nubbles," John Dornin; "Fred Trent," Robert Baird; "Quill," Warren Perry; "Mrs. Quill," Miss Ruby Morse; "Mrs. Jintin," Mrs. John Dornin; "Samson Brass," Oscar Barber; "Sally Brass," Miss Frances Woolsey; "Landlady," Miss Fannie McLean; "Codin," Hubert Bryant; "Short," Almerio Coxhead; "Mrs. Jarley," Mrs. Hubert Bryant.

George M. Mott, Jr., acted as stage manager, and was assisted by Mrs. Bailey in the coaching. In Mrs. Deakin's arrangement, which was made specially for the occasion, there were four acts: "The Old Curiosity Shop," "Office of Samson Brass," "Interior of Jolly Sandboys Inn" and "Dick Swiveller's bedroom." The stage properties were supplied without charge by Ye Liberty Playhouse.

The Berkeley Day Nursery, which is one of the three charitable organizations controlled by the charities commission, depends upon public aid for its maintenance. Recently a site was secured for the nursery in West Berkeley, on which it is proposed to build a bungalow with the proceeds of tonight's repetition of the play. During the past thirty days the nursery secured work for forty-three women, taking care of their little ones free of charge while they were so employed.

BURGLAR ENTERS MANY RESIDENCES

Tall Young Man Is Sought by the Police for Several Burglaries.

BERKELEY, March 12.—The thickly settled residence section of the city about Telegraph and Bancroft avenues is the scene of operations of a burglar whose description is in the hands of the police and who is being diligently sought by them. Five burglaries in this district recently have been accomplished by a man who has in each case been similarly described by different residents.

The home of A. McBride at 3001 Benvenue avenue was entered yesterday afternoon and silverware valued at $150 and a diamond ring worth $50 stolen. The burglar entered the house from a rear porch, where the doorkey had been left, and ransacked the residence from cellar to attic.

He was seen before entering the house, in the rear yard, by Mrs. F. L. Lathrop, a neighbor, who furnished his description to the police. He is a young man, 5 feet 10 inches tall, and of rather slender build. He wears a dark suit with a black derby and is smoothly shaved.

PAYS HOSPITAL DUES THEN KILLS HIMSELF

ALAMEDA, March 12.—Otto May, a German, committed suicide last night in the German hospital in San Francisco by shooting himself. May, who had spent a few nights in Alameda prior to going to the hospital, appeared at the hospital early last evening and paid $10 back dues to the Hospital Association, of which he is a member. After then going to the office and, stepping into an adjoining compartment, fired a bullet into his brain, dying instantly. May was not a resident of Alameda and nothing is known of him here save that he went to a room at the German hospital for a few nights, though he did not register. His identity was revealed by the hospital receipt. He was about 35 years of age.

$1,000 Mistake

W. A. Lensink, contractor, Evansville, Ind., recently made a $1,000 mistake without investing a cent.

He figured an estimate on a large contract. Next day a Burroughs man showed him how the Burroughs Adding Machine does all kinds of figuring without errors and in one-fifth the time.

Just "to see the machine do it," Mr. Lensink used the Burroughs to re-figure the estimate, and found a $1,000 mistake.

He bought a Burroughs. Honestly now—did you ever make a costly mistake in figures?

SELL OAKWOOD PARK RANCH FOR $350,000

MARTINEZ, March 12.—The famous Oakwood Park ranch, well known throughout the country as a stock farm, was sold here yesterday in the R. N. Burgess Company for $350,000. The farm contains 8000 acres.

For years the ranch has been the training ground for racing stock. Years ago it was owned by Major Cook, who was associated with Collis P. Huntington in the building of the Central Pacific Railroad.

The ranch was well improved with mansions, clubhouses, barns and race courses, but of recent years had fallen into ruin. John F. Boyd of San Rafael had purchased the ranch from the Cook estate and engineered the sale to the Burgess people.

BETTERING MARKET CONDITIONS PLAN

Building Trades Council Would Form Organization of Lumber Men.

A proposition for bettering market conditions has been made by representatives of the Building Trades Council to several big lumber dealers. The plan of the council is to form a large organization of the lumber men to benefit not only the trades council but also large contractors, who will be able to secure discounts that the individual will be unable to obtain.

The Building Trades Council has approached the companies with the statement that the contractors are paying the same price for lumber as the individual, and that with an association larger orders would be given in consideration of a discount in price. It is the aim, according to representatives of the council who have discussed the matter with lumber men, to get all the concerns in the county into the association and to make one large association for the benefit of contractors.

Only a few of the lumber companies have been approached so far by the council, but others will be in the near future, according to reports about the lumber yards.

Hugh Hogan, president of the Hogan Lumber Company, in speaking of the matter today said:

"You it is true that an effort is being made by the trades council to affiliate the various lumber concerns in the county into one large association for the purpose of bettering conditions in all markets. I have conferred several times with representatives of the council and am heartily in sympathy with the scheme. As yet I have heard of no definite plans, although the first steps of forming an association will be made in the course of the next few weeks."

ARE ACCUSED OF SMUGGLING

Captain of Boat Captured in Oakland Estuary Is Held to Answer.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—The preliminary examination of those implicated in the alleged smuggling of Chinese into Oakland from Mexico, resulting in the capture of the smugglers and their cargo on Saturday, March 2, occurred before United States Commissioner Krull this morning.

Inspectors Thomas Crawford and Alfred Buckley told of finding the schooner Morning Star, and of the capture of the band in the Oakland estuary. John Carrese, the captain of the boat, waived examination and was held to answer to the district court, with bonds fixed at $3000. Giuseppe de Silva, the engineer, is unable to speak English and in the absence of an interpreter, his case was postponed. The court, however, proceeded with the examination of Richard McCarron, who was found on the wharf at the time the boat made a landing in Oakland. The proceedings took up the entire morning session.

NEW CHARGE AGAINST ANDERSON.

Confessed Will Forger Makes Contradictory Statements in Court.

Mrs. Harriet L. de Vine, who forged a will purporting to be that of the late Mary L. Swain in Berkeley was uncertain whether or not she had an attorney when she appeared before Superior Judge Elnsworth for sentence this morning. She acted in a peculiar manner in answering the questions put to her by the court, and contradicted herself in saying that she would like an attorney, then that she had one and later that she had not.

Matron White of the county jail went to her assistance and told the court that she had written a letter to Attorney E. A. Bridgford, telling him that she did not want his counsel any longer. Attorney Bridgford says that he visited her this morning and that he believed he was still retained in the case. Finally it was decided that the case should go over for two weeks while the probation office sought additional information and to give Mrs. de Vine an opportunity to engage another attorney if she so desired.

Mrs. de Vine, who at one time lived in Chicago, is said to have had a record there and there is considerable surmise as to what the report of the probation office will recommend.

WOMAN IS VICTIM OF SNEAK THIEF

Purse Snatcher Haunts Nob Hill District in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—A purse snatcher who occasionally replenishes his depleted pocket-book by attacking women and girls on the streets, has almost exclusively confined his attention to the Nob Hill district. Most of the cases reported to the authorities have come from that section and an extra watch has been set in an endeavor to capture the culprit.

Last night Mrs. M. K. Williams of 702 Fall street was waiting for a car at Sacramento and Leavenworth streets, with a watch in her hand. A stranger approached her, snatched apparently waiting also and then suddenly seized her pocketbook containing $5 and escaped.

READ WHAT
92 YEARS OLD WRITES

DR. RADWAY & CO.

Dear Sirs: I have been thinking for a long time to write you, but have put it off till now. Well, for the last three years I have had kidney and liver disease and backache, and I have had it so bad that for eight days and nights I could not get my clothes off. I used to put on plaster and mustard plasters, and tried most everything. Well, I had some Radway's Ready Relief in the house that I have used for twenty years for Rheumatism. I thought I would try that. I gave my back and hips and sides a good rubbing, and to my surprise, in a short time the pain was all gone. And now I put it on every four days. Radway's Ready Relief ought to be in every house in the land. No one in this world knows but God and myself the misery I was in, till I USED your Ready Relief. I prayed every day for death, and often thought I had better destroy myself. And this Sunday last, the 6th of April, I was 92 years old, born on a farm. No wife (lost two good ones), no children—if I had one then I would like to live 1000 years. I thought it was my duty to let you know what your medicine has done for an old man. I use one 50-cent bottle about every six weeks. Your respects fully. (Signed) JACOB ABRAHAM R. F. D. No. 1, Millstone, N. J.

STOPS YOUR HAIR FALLING OUT AND DISSOLVES DANDRUFF AT ONCE

Your hair appears soft, lustrous, fluffy and abundant after using a little Danderine

What causes Dandruff, Itchy scalp and falling hair? Who cares—so long as Danderine overcomes this—and it does, and quickly, too—it does more, it grows hair, and we can prove it.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair—sprouting all over the scalp.

A little Danderine now will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy and have an appearance of abundance; and incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove to yourself tonight—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.

POWER STATION BURNS; KEEPER RISKS HIS LIFE

SACRAMENTO, March 12.—News was received here of the destruction of the Great Western Power Company's important sub-station below Isleton last week, when damage to the amount of $10,000 was done. A short circuit of the system set the big transformers afire, and the interior machinery and wiring of the cement building were destroyed. New transformers were sent and are now being placed.

Lester King, in charge of the plant, ventured among the electric fashers and fuses from the burning oil of the transformers to shut off the power. He escaped injury. The company has laid big cables under the Sacramento river from this point to reach Rio Vista and its new line to Suisun, Vallejo and Napa.

CLOTHING OF MURDERED CONTRACTOR IS FOUND

MADERA, March 12.—The clothes, suit and shoes of a contractor, who disappeared from Madera about four months ago have been found in an old barrel in the year of an old building here. The officers believe Lemming was murdered and his body probably buried or sunk in a near-by stream.

Word has been sent to local officials and also the local lodge of Elks, Lemming, who had a contract to construct a building for the Northern California Bank of Savings at Marysville, got on a prolonged spree and disappeared before he started work on the building.

INSISTED THAT U. S. FLAG BE UNFURLED

SEATTLE, March 12.—The State Socialist convention was thrown into a tumult yesterday by O. C. Feenelson, a delegate from Hoquiam, who moved that the convention adjourn until an American flag had been procured and displayed.

The motion was received with hoots and jeers. Feenelson persisted in his effort to speak and the chairman sustained his right. Feenelson explained that he revered the international red flag, which was displayed in the hall, but thought it should share honors with the Stars and Stripes, the banner of a government founded on the principle of equal rights. The motion was defeated three to one and the convention resumed its work of revising the constitution.

ONE PAN OF GRAVEL YIELDS MINER $117

PLACERVILLE, Cal., March 12.—A ripple of excitement swept to the days of a mine here yesterday when it became known that one pan of gravel washed at the Landecker mine had yielded $117. Hughes and Benny have the lease on the mine and they have been washing fairly rich pans for several weeks. When a pan was washed and they saw the gold they quit work and came into town to spread the good news.

Many aged miners are talking of going to work on the abandoned gravel mines. The Landecker mine is on a hill within two blocks of the main street of Placerville.

FIVE NEAR DEATH WHEN AUTO UPSETS

Prominent Men Are Slightly Injured When Speeding Machine Goes Over.

SACRAMENTO, March 12.—A party including several men prominent in the Sacramento valley and San Francisco had a thrilling experience near Dixon, according to information received here, and several of them narrowly escaped death as the result of an automobile in which they were riding turning turtle.

E. R. Lillenthal, president; A. D. Schindler, general manager, and George E. Springer, fiscal agent of the Northern Electric Railroad; Herbert Furlong, president of the West Sacramento Company, and Attorney Elmer W. Armfield of Woodland were in Armfield's automobile going from Woodland to Dixon to catch a train for San Francisco.

The auto was going at high speed when it skidded on a grade and turned over. The five occupants were thrown out and all were bruised and cut.

Schindler was believed to be injured internally, but was at his office in San Francisco yesterday. Armfield's legs were injured.

All were able to walk to Dixon, half a mile, and take trains. Saturday all the members of the party were in another automobile wreck near Meridian, when a rear axle of the machine broke. No one was hurt in that mishap.

AUTO IS DITCHED

BELLINGHAM, Wash., March 12.—William Brisen, former sheriff and State Republican committeeman for Whatcom county, was killed in an automobile wreck near Deming, and Hugh Eldridge, postmaster of Bellingham, was seriously but not fatally hurt. Anthony S. Wilson of the Wilson-Nobles-Barr Company was rendered unconscious and is severely injured.

The party was returning to Bellingham from Sumas when their lights went out. In the darkness a team was seen close in front. Brisen was driving and threw the machine into the ditch rather than strike the team. The automobile turned turtle and Brisen's diaphragm was crushed against the steering wheel.

VINTNER POURING WINE IS BURIED IN LAVA

NAPLES, March 12.—Interesting news is being made in "The Streets of Abundance" recently unearthed, which leads to the amphitheater at Pompeii. In one shop there was found a row of wine jars, so placed that it would seem the vintner was in the act of pouring wine from one into another when overtaken by waves of lava. A. D. 79.

On walls bordering the road are many political notices relating to elections. Excavations are being continued and more interesting discoveries are expected.

SCHOOL DEBATES EVEN UP HONORS ON THE ROSTRUM

HAROLD MASTERS.

At the initial debate of the Alert Debating Club of the Grant school the subject was "Resolved, That the Invention of Deadly Weapons of Warfare is of Advantage to Mankind." The leader of the affirmative side was Harold H. Masters and of the negative Vance Baumgartner, the affirmative side winning.

The second debate was held last Friday, the subject being, "Resolved, That Country Life is of More Advantage to Human Development Than City Life." The leaders in this instance taking opposite sides from the first, the affirmative side winning, making the honors even. The other participants were Burton Allen, Abraham Glickman, Howard Martin, Philip Stone, Frank Fay, Adrian Hermie, Gordon Wright and Howard Baxter.

For the skillful manner in which the subjects were handled credit was given Miss Daniellewitz, the teacher under whose direction and supervision this grade is taught.

ELEANORA SEARS WINS FAST RACE

In Masculine Garb She Romps Home Ahead of Lady Reginald Herbert.

SAN DIEGO, March 12.—Lady Reginald Herbert, one of the most popular as well as most handsome of the titled English visitors now at Coronado did not wear the masculine suit in the race with Miss Sears here yesterday afternoon, and Miss Sears won the race. She had planned to do so and was at the grounds in her riding garb for an hour before the race was scheduled to take place. Then she started to go across the track in front of the great crowd in the grandstand.

Long Herbert sped her just as she was nearing the gate.

"Oh, don't do that," the Lord was heard to say. "It's horrid to have those people looking at you with those things on, don't you know." He picked at his little mustache as he talked and was apparently greatly excited. For a minute or more his lordship and Lady Herbert talked in a low tone, across the fence and then Lady Herbert walked to where the other distinguished spectators were sitting near the judges' stand.

Then minutes before the race, Lady Herbert left for the clubhouse, appearing again just before the bugle sounded, dressed in a long conventional blue riding skirt. It reached below her boot tops. Hawk Eye, the horse, who was riding in the race, was fitted with one of those old style ladies' riding saddles and the did Lady Herbert go down to defeat, for to this fact can be ascribed her losing to Miss Eleanor Sears, the plucky and willful young Boston millionaire bachelor maid.

TWO IN RACE

Those were the only two who finally entered the race. It was a quarter of a mile dash and Miss Sears romped in two lengths in the lead, an advantage she gained as a result of the cumbersome skirts worn by Lady Herbert.

Miss Sears proved every inch a jockey. She rode Joe Ross, a handsome bay gelding, a two-time victor in the six races held here yesterday. The maid is from the stable of C. W. Clark. Miss Sears wore bright red fish-brown top trousers, army riding leggings, a khaki colored blouse and white silk sleeves. A jaunty plaid cap graced her well-poised head, while a narrow bright red and black necktie was tied about her waist, bringing her blouse and trousers top together.

It was a good race while it lasted. Both horses got off well together, Miss Sears slightly in the lead on the outside. It could be seen that Lady Herbert's riding habit was bothering her and slowly she fell back until her chance of victory was gone. She was a game loser, however, and congratulated her rival when the race was over. Considerable money changed hands on the result, English and American spectators vying each to bet on their lady.

Scanty men cashed bets with the air of turf followers.

FISHING BOATS SAFE; LIMP INTO HARBOR

SAN DIEGO, March 12.—The power fishing schooners Tripoli, Captain F. Castagnola, and the Florida, Captain A. Zuniermo, two of the six vessels of the missing fishing fleet, got into port from the south late yesterday afternoon in a badly crippled condition and after a hard fight with the storm.

They were accompanied by the fishing boat Lily. The fishermen report that the other four boats of the fleet were driven into Todos Santos bay, near Ensenada, and are believed to be safe.

HARVEST ASPARAGUS

SACRAMENTO, March 12.—A large force of women are engaged in packing asparagus here for shipment to eastern markets. The harvest is now under full headway, although shipments have been made for some time in small quantities. After being carefully packed in crates, the asparagus is loaded into express cars, and rushed to the Atlantic seaboard, where excellent prices are being obtained. The shipments of fresh asparagus this year will amount to about seventy-five carloads.

Russ's Garden, Fifty Years ago when Golden Wedding Rye was young —“Take it from the best judges” said Grandfather, “that Rye alone combines the Quality and the Flavor that make an ideal Whiskey.”

“A great Whiskey authority said many years ago, that ‘The Soul of Good Whiskey Dwells in Rye.’”

“This has been specially proved in the case of which for more than fifty years has been the whiskey for the home—sideboard and the medicine cabinet in the best homes of the country. It has the mellowness and the glow without the undesirable after-effects.”
